MEMORANDUM FOR DIANNA G. HOLLAND

FROM:

JOHN G. ROBERTS

SUBJECT:

Appointments to the Advisory Council on Historic Preservation

The Advisory Council on Historic Preservation consists of (1) a Chairman appointed by the President from the general public, (2) the Secretary of the Interior, (3) the Architect of the Capitol, (4) the Secretary of Agriculture and the heads of four Federal agencies, the activities of which affect historic preservation, appointed by the President, (5) a Governor appointed by the President, (6) a mayor appointed by the President, (7) the President of the National Conference of State Historic Preservation Officers, (8) the Chairman of the National Trust for Historic Preservation, (9) four experts in specified fields appointed by the President, and (10) three members of the general public appointed by the President. 16 U.S.C. § 470i(a).

I have no objection to the proposed appointments of Secretary Baker and Chris Hicks as heads of agencies the activities of which affect historic preservation, 16 U.S.C. § 470i(a)(4). Secretary Baker clearly fits this description, since he heads the Treasury Department, the activities of which have in recent years profoundly affected historic preservation, primarily through tax incentive programs for restoration of historic properties. The question of whether the Director of the Office of Administration could be considered the "head of an agency" was addressed and resolved in the affirmative ("not without some doubt") in a June 18, 1984 memorandum for John Herrington from Mr. Fielding. In light of that conclusion, I have no objection to Mr. Hicks's appointment.

Michael Castle is Governor of Delaware, being appointed pursuant to 16 U.S.C. § 470i(a)(5). He owns interests in several real estate partnerships, but there is no suggestion that historic property is involved.

William Althaus is Mayor of York, Pennsylvania, being appointed pursuant to 16 U.S.C. § 470i(a)(6). His Personal Data Statement reveals no problems, but I would note that he is up for reelection this November. If Althaus fails in his reelection bid, his term on the Council will expire along with his term as mayor. 16 U.S.C. § 470i(c).

Jennifer Dunn is being appointed as a member of the general public, pursuant to 16 U.S.C. § 470i(a)(10). She is Chairman of the Washington State Republican Party. Cynthia Grassly Baker is to be appointed Chairman of the Council pursuant to 16 U.S.C. § 470i(a)(1). Active in Colorado Republican affairs, Mrs. Baker was until recently involved in promoting private sector activities at the National Endowment for the Arts. Her spouse is a CPA, with some interests in real estate partnerships. Mrs. Baker has represented that those interests present no conflict, and they do not appear to implicate historic preservation issues.

By memorandum for you dated June 24, 1985 (attached) I reviewed the prospective appointment of Carolyn Deaver, Roy Goodman, and Diane Wolf to the Commission of Fine Arts. I noted in that memorandum that three more prospective appointees to the Commission were in clearance, and that we should wait and clear all six at the same time.

I have now received Personal Data Statements from the second set of three prospective appointees.

J. Carter Brown is Director of the National Gallery of Art, and is being reappointed to the Commission. (The statute makes no reference to reappointments, so they are permitted under general principles of law.) Brown clearly satisfies the statutory requirement that appointees be "well-qualified judges of the fine arts," 40 U.S.C. § 104, and his PDS presents no problems.

Neil Porterfield is Professor and Head of the Department of Landscape Architecture at Penn State. He has received numerous awards for landscape architecture, and has written extensively in the field. I suppose it may be subject to some academic debate whether landscape architecture is considered one of the "fine arts," but there can be no doubt that knowledge of the field will be highly useful given the functions of the Commission. I accordingly consider Porterfield qualified, and his PDS presents no problems.

Pascal Regan is a Beverly Hills sculptress, described as the only person sculpting glass by hammer and chisel.

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT H. TUTTLE
DEPUTY ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT
DIRECTOR, PRESIDENTIAL PERSONNEL

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Appointments to the Commission of Fine Arts

All necessary clearances have been accomplished with regard to the following individuals and they are ready for appointment by the President to the Commission of Fine Arts:

Diane Wolf
Roy Goodman
Carolyn Deaver
J. Carter Brown
Neil Porterfield
Pascal Regan

I would note, however, that the statute requires appointees to be "well-qualified judges of the fine arts." 40 U.S.C. § 104. Several of these prospective appointees, in particular Mesdames Wolf and Regan, are not widely recognized as experts in this field, and may be subject to criticism as unqualified for the important work of this Commission.
