MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 13, 1983

FOR: FRED F. FIELDING
FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR
SUBJECT: Inquiry from Daniel Leonard

Daniel Leonard, Deputy Director of the Drug Abuse Policy Office, has asked for an opinion on the legality of accepting an invitation to serve as a member of the Advisory Committee for International Policy of the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP). The invitation, from IACP President Leo Callahan, asked Leonard to participate actively in the important work of the Committee. Leonard indicates that he believes his membership will further the goals of his office.

I would advise Leonard against accepting the invitation. The IACP is, of course, a fine organization, and generally supportive of Administration policy, but it may adopt positions contrary to those of the Administration in the area of drug enforcement policy. The invitation clearly contemplates an active role for Leonard, and I do not think he should put himself in the position of wearing two hats, one as Deputy Director of the Drug Abuse Policy Office and another as an IACP Advisory Committee member.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

April 13, 1983

FOR: DANIEL LEONARD
DEPUTY DIRECTOR
DRUG ABUSE POLICY OFFICE

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING Orig. signed by FFF
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Invitation to Serve on IACP Advisory Committee

You have requested our views on whether it would be appropriate for you to accept an invitation to serve as a member of the Advisory Committee for International Policy of the International Association of Chiefs of Police while serving in your current position of Deputy Director of the Drug Abuse Policy Office. Consistent with established White House policy, we must advise you not to accept the invitation.

As a general matter we adhere to a policy of not approving service by White House staff members on outside advisory committees or organizations. Such service may place the staff member in a difficult position should the outside organization and the Administration adopt conflicting positions, and may also be viewed as undermining the impartiality of the staff member as he confronts issues in his official capacity that affect the outside organization. I recognize that the IACP has generally been supportive of our efforts, but, nonetheless, do not believe that we can discount these concerns.

Thank you for bringing the matter to our attention.

Dear Mr. Leonard:

One of the most important responsibilities of the President of the International Association of Chiefs of Police is the selection of membership on the various committees. It is through the efforts of our committees that the IACP continues to demonstrate its leadership among law enforcement professionals.

I would appreciate your acceptance of this invitation to serve as a member of the 1982-83 Advisory Committee for International Policy. Because of the importance of the work performed by this Committee, it is my sincere desire that as a member you actively participate in the work of the Committee whenever appropriate and possible.

Please advise me at IACP headquarters if you are able to accept this appointment.

Sincerely,

Leo F. Callahan

MEMORANDUM FOR JAMES A. BAKER, III
MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING Orig. signed by FFF

SUBJECT: Retirement of James Coyne Campaign Debt

James Coyne has advised my office that he would like to hold a fundraiser to help retire the outstanding campaign debt owed to him by his campaign committee. We are prepared to give him appropriate guidance concerning conflict of interest and other matters in connection with such activity. Coyne is, however, presently paid as an SES employee of the Department of Commerce and accordingly is subject to the restrictions of the Hatch Act, 5 U.S.C. § 7324. That Act, and implementing regulations, 5 C.F.R. § 733.122(b), prohibit political fundraising activities on the part of covered federal employees. While Coyne's situation is unusual in that the contemplated fundraising is to retire a debt from a past campaign, neither the Act nor the regulations draw a temporal distinction, and I cannot confidently advise that Coyne would not run afoul of the Hatch Act's prohibitions.

The pertinent provisions of the Hatch Act do not apply to "an employee paid from the appropriation for the office of the President." 5 U.S.C. § 7324(d)(1). Accordingly, if Coyne were so paid, he could hold a fundraiser, subject to our standard advice on conflict of interest and related matters. To ensure that we encounter no Hatch Act problems, I recommend that Coyne's employment status be adjusted, if possible, so that he is "paid from the appropriation for the office of the President," at least until his fundraising activity is completed.

April 21, 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR THE HONORABLE JAMES COYNE
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT
PRIVATE SECTOR INITIATIVES

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Retirement of the Debts of the James Coyne for Congress Committee

As a Special Assistant to the President for Private Sector Initiatives, you are in a unique position with regard to your efforts to retire the campaign debts of your 1982 Congressional Campaign Committee (the "Committee"). You are subject to the Standards of Ethical Conduct for Government Officers and Employees as set forth in Executive Order No. 11222, and the Standards of Conduct for White House Employees, 3 C.F.R. § 100.735. Further, several provisions of the Federal Criminal Code, 18 U.S.C. §§ 201, 203, 209, 210, 211, 602, 603 and 607 are applicable to you as a Federal employee and should be reviewed carefully in the course of retiring the Committee's debts. Since the Committee owes a substantial debt to you as an individual, contributions to the Committee must be considered indirect payments to you.

Outlined below is our analysis of the restrictions of each of the statutory provisions */ and the Executive Order noted above which are or should be considered applicable to your activities in connection with any efforts to retire the debts of the Committee. Additionally, we have attached a summary of the general guidelines which you and your campaign committee should follow in planning the Committee's fundraising activities to retire the Committee's debts.

*/ All references to statutory requirements contained herein, unless otherwise specifically noted, are paraphrases of the referenced statutes. Accordingly, when in doubt as to the applicability of these statutory provisions to specific facts or circumstances, reference should be made directly to the statute in question.

As an initial matter, we have been advised by the Office of Administration that you are now paid from the appropriation for the office of the President. Accordingly, the prohibitions on fundraising found in the Hatch Act, 5 U.S.C. § 7324, are not applicable. Fundraising efforts by you or the Committee should, however, be strictly limited to retiring debts from your past campaign.

18 U.S.C. § 201: provides in part that any public official may not solicit, accept, receive or agree to receive anything of value for himself or for any other person or entity, in return for being influenced in his performance of any official act; for being induced to do or omit any act in violation of his official duty; or being influenced in his testimony under oath in any proceeding before any court or Congressional hearing. Violations of this provision are punishable by fine, imprisonment or both, and possible disqualification from holding any office of honor or trust under the United States.

Additionally, 18 U.S.C. § 201 prohibits any public official from soliciting, accepting, receiving or agreeing to receive anything of value for himself or for another person or entity for or because of any official act, including testimony before any court or Congressional committee, to be performed by him. Violations of this provision are punishable by fine, imprisonment or both.

Under certain circumstances these restrictions may preclude you or the Committee from accepting any contributions from individuals or political committees, including political action committees (PAC's), whose specific purpose in making such contribution is to influence your official acts. To avoid any appearance of a violation of this provision, you and the Committee should not solicit or accept contributions from any individual, political committee or organization which has interests or represents individuals or organizations having interests that are now or will be affected by the actions or non-actions of the Office of Private Sector Initiatives.

18 U.S.C. § 203: prohibits Members of Congress, or officers or employees of the Federal government from receiving, soliciting, or seeking any compensation for services rendered by them or any other person on behalf of another person in relation to any proceeding, request for a ruling or other determination, controversy or particular matter in which the United States is a party or has a direct and substantial interest. Violation of this provision is punishable by fine, imprisonment or both. Accordingly, you and the Committee should not accept contributions from any individual, political committee or organization if the acceptance of such contribution could reasonably be perceived as compensation for anticipated services to be rendered by you as a Federal employee on behalf of such individuals or groups represented by such political committees. Hence you and the Committee should not solicit or accept contributions from entities which have or will have interests pending before the Office of Private Sector Initiatives or before other Federal government agencies which could reasonably be construed to be subject to significant influence by you.

18 U.S.C. § 209: prohibits supplementation of the salary of a Federal official as compensation for his services as a Federal official. No payments to the Committee may be solicited or accepted as additional compensation for your services as a Special Assistant to the President. Contributions may only be solicited and accepted to retire the Committee's preexisting debt. As a general matter, you and the Committee should not accept any contributions which you have reason to believe would not have been made but for your current Federal employment.

18 U.S.C. § 210: prohibits the payment of money or anything of value to any person, firm or corporation in consideration of the use or promise to use any influence to procure any appointive office in the United States.

18 U.S.C. § 211: prohibits the solicitation or receipt, either as a political contribution or personal emolument, of any money or thing of value in consideration for the promise of support or use of influence in obtaining for any person any appointive office in the United States.

Out of an abundance of caution, these prohibitions should be viewed by you and the Committee as prohibiting the acceptance of any contributions from individuals whom you may wish to appoint to positions within your office, or who are seeking appointments to positions within your office or any other position within the Federal government.

18 U.S.C. § 602: prohibits any candidate for the Congress, any Senator or Congressman, or any officer or employee of the United States or any department or agency thereof, from knowingly soliciting political contributions from any other such officer or employee.

Thus, you and the Committee should take the steps necessary to ensure that no Senators or Congressmen, or officers or employees of the Federal government, are knowingly solicited for contributions to the Committee.

18 U.S.C. § 603: prohibits an officer or employee of the Federal government from making political contributions to their supervising officers in the Federal government. For purposes of this provision, a contribution to a political committee authorized by an officer of the Federal government is considered a contribution to such officer..

The Committee, therefore, should not accept any contributions from individuals presently employed by your office.

18 U.S.C. § 607: prohibits the solicitation or acceptance of a political contribution in a Federal building. There is an exception to this prohibition for the receipt of contributions in Federal buildings by persons on the staff of a Senator or Congressman under specific circumstances, but such exception would no longer be applicable to you or the Committee.

This provision would preclude all solicitation of contributions at the Office of Private Sector Initiatives. Further, in the event that any political contributions to the Committee are received at your office, such contributions should be returned directly to the donor with instructions as to the appropriate mailing address for the Committee.

Section 201(c) of Executive Order No. 11222 provides in part:

It is the intent of this section that employees avoid any action . . . which might result in, or create the appearance of:

- (1) using public office for private gain;
- (2) giving preferential treatment to any organization or person;
- (3) impeding government efficiency or economy;
- (4) losing complete independence or impartiality of action;
- (5) making a government decision outside official channels; or
- (6) affecting adversely the confidence of the public in the integrity of the Government.

You and the Committee should, therefore, avoid soliciting or accepting unsolicited contributions whose receipt will create the appearance of precluding your exercise of independent judgment or impartial action with regard to the issues coming before you. Accordingly, you and the Committee should not accept contributions from individuals or political committees who have not previously contributed to your political committees and whose contributions, in light of your current position, could be viewed as efforts to affect your independence and impartiality in issues coming before you. Additionally, the Committee should not solicit contributions in any manner that suggests that you are using your appointment to Federal office for personal gain. Solicitations by the Committee referring to your current position could create such an appearance, and should, therefore, be avoided.

Finally, the issues raised by settlement of the debts of the Committee for less than their full amount are governed by the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and its regulations. Although a full discussion of those provisions is beyond the scope of this memorandum, you should be aware that all of the above considerations which apply to contributions would also apply to the forgiveness of all or part of an existing debt.

If you have any questions concerning the appropriateness of accepting any particular contributions, or concerning any other matters discussed in this memorandum, please do not hesitate to contact this office for guidance.

SUMMARY OF GENERAL GUIDELINES FOR ACCEPTANCE OF POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS

I. GENERAL RULE:

The Committee should not solicit or accept contributions from any individual, political committee, or organization (a) if the individual or entities represented by the Committee or organization has interests in matters which are or may be pending before your office or is affected or regulated by any policies, decisions or regulations of your office, or (b) if such solicitation or acceptance would create the appearance of precluding your exercise of independent judgment or impartial action with regard to the issues coming before you, or otherwise affect adversely the confidence of the public in the integrity of the government.

II. SPECIFIC PROHIBITIONS:

Fundraising activity is permitted only to retire debts from your past campaign.

Do not accept any contributions from individuals whom you may wish to appoint to positions within the Office of Private Sector Initiatives.

Do not accept any contributions from individuals who are seeking appointments within the Office of Private Sector Initiatives or any other position within the Federal government.

Do not solicit any Senators, Congressmen or officers or employees of the Federal government for contributions to the Committee.

Do not accept any contributions from individuals presently employed by the Office of Private Sector Initiatives.

Do not solicit or accept any contributions in your Federal offices. If any contributions are received at these offices, such contributions should be returned directly to donors with instructions as to the appropriate mailing address of the Committee.

Do not solicit contributions in any manner which suggests that you or the Committee are using your appointment to Federal office for your personal gain. Solicitations should not include reference to the fact of your current Federal employment.

SUBJECT: Invitation to Craig Fuller to participate in French-American Foundation's Meeting in St-Paul-de-Vence, France Sept. 30 - Oct. 3

Craig Fuller has asked if there is any problem with his accepting an invitation from the French-American Foundation (FAF) to attend a meeting of young leaders sponsored by FAF in St-Paul-de-Vence, France, September 30 - October 3. FAF would reimburse Fuller for travel and other expenses.

FAF is a 501(c)(3) organization whose purpose is to strengthen relations between France and the United States. The meeting to which Fuller has been invited will consist of discussion of foreign, economic, social, and cultural policy issues of concern to both countries. Such discussion should probably be viewed as within the scope of Fuller's official duties. Payment of expenses by FAF is nonetheless permissible under 5 U.S.C. § 4111, which provides that "payment of travel, subsistence, and other expenses incident to attendance at meetings, may be made to and accepted by an employee, ...if the...payments are made by [a 501(c)(3) organization]." Acceptance of expenses from FAF does not create an actual or apparent conflict of interest with Fuller's duties. A memorandum noting no legal objection to Fuller's acceptance of the invitation is attached.

COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Invitation to Craig Fuller to participate in French-American Foundation's Meeting in St.-Paul-de-Vence, France Sept. 30- Oct. 3

Counsel's Office has reviewed the above-referenced invitation, and has no legal objection to your acceptance of it. The trip should be considered within the scope of your official duties, but your normal, reasonable travel expenses may nonetheless be paid by the French-American Foundation because it is a 501(c)(3) organization. 5 U.S.C. § 4111. Our advice assumes that acceptance of expenses from the French-American Foundation will not create an actual or apparent conflict of interest with your official duties. We are aware of no such conflict, but you should review your responsibilities to be certain no conflict will arise.

Mr. Craig L. Fuller
Assistant to the President for Cabinet Affairs
The White House
Washington D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. Fuller:

We were pleased to learn yesterday from Robinson West that you are considering our invitation to take part in the French-American Foundation's meeting in St-Paul-de-Vence, France, September 30 - October 3, for a small group of young leaders from France and the United States. The informal meeting is designed to bring together leaders from different professions and regions within each country for off-the-record discussions of foreign, economic, social and cultural policy issues in the two countries. Robin West can best describe for you the nature of our Young Leaders' Meetings as he is a veteran of two of them.

A calendar of events, list of participants to date and travel information are enclosed. As a guest of the French-American Foundation, your round-trip air fare to Nice, as well as hotel, meal, local transportation and meeting expenses will be covered.

In addition to the two days of discussions, the French-American Young Leaders Meeting is being extended by one day to permit a special visit to high technology installations in the Valbonne-Sophia-Antipolis industrial park near Cannes.

I am enclosing a report of the French-American Foundation for your information. As a non-profit, operating foundation whose purpose is to strengthen relations between the United States and France, we create and implement each year about 12 projects for young French and American professionals involved with problems of major concern to both societies. A basic Foundation goal is to keep each country's view of the other up-to-date and to reduce misperceptions.

For example, this July we organized an eight-day Seminar on Congress and Foreign Policy for 15 leading young Deputies from the French National Assembly (program enclosed). In addition to meetings with Congressional leaders, the French legislators met with Vice President Bush and Secretary of Defense Weinberger as part of the program to deepen understanding of the foreign policy-making process in the United States.

We hope very much to have the pleasure of welcoming you to the French-American Young Leaders Meeting in St-Paul-de-Vence this fall and look forward to hearing from you.

With best wishes,
