SUBJECT: NRA Invitation to the President

As you can see, Lee, Michael K. Deaver thinks the concept is a good one however, he is very much against a cover picture of a revolver with Ronald Reagan's name on it. Would you please talk to Lyn and work out a compromise.

MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM:

LYN NOFZIGER LN/gw

RE:

NRA INVITATION TO THE PRESIDENT

It at all possible, I think it would be worthwhile to allow the NRA to present the commemorative firearm to the President.

If you will notice the fourth graph of their letter, this presentation would mark the kickoff of the NRA's voter registration effort. Over the last two years, the Democrats, especially liberal groups, have been out-registering Republicans all over the place because the Republicans haven't been doing anything. The more we can enthruse large groups such as the NRA to get involved in registration, the more helpful I think it would be.

Mike, I just do not think we're going to win this one easily, and we are going to need all the help we can get.

Bill
I totally agree with LW
- I just don't agree with the idea of a cover prof of a revolver with RPs name on it for them - no gun

The President
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The National Rifle Association of America, by special arrangement with Colt Industries and Bianchi Leatherworks would like to present you with a commemorative firearm to honor your recent visit and address before the NRA Annual Meetings in Phoenix, Arizona. The NRA committed working on this project has unanimously decided that this is the most appropriate way to express our deep thanks and warm feelings for your continued support on Constitutional matters that are very close to us.

The designated commemorative firearm is a master hand engraved and embellished Colt Gold Cup Mark IV competition firearm, finished in royal blue steel with gold accents, with a walnut checkered stock in a special presentation case. The set will include a unique custom crafted tan leather holster and belt designed and executed by Mr. John Bianchi, the Nation's foremost designer of custom gunleather. Detailed drawings are scheduled for completion within two weeks, with a delivery to take place within a month.

The commemorative firearm shall be presented to you at the location of your choice.

This presentation is of special significance given the fact that it will mark the kickoff of the NRA's nationwide voter registration effort. While approximately 90 to 95 percent of NRA's members are registered, all surveys show that there are hundreds and thousands of gun owners around the country who have not yet registered to vote. These potential voters could decide numerous key Senate races next fall. Key targeted states for the NRA sportsmen registration effort include Michigan, New York, Illinois, Florida, Texas, North Carolina, Minnesota, New Mexico, Ohio, New Hampshire and numerous other states. The focal point of the NRA voter registration campaign will be the slogan "never disarm" which directly relates to the presentation of the presidential commemorative firearm. In your speech at the NRA convention in Phoenix, Arizona, the key words were "never disarm." These words will be displayed prominently on the side of the presidential commemorative firearm. A photograph of the firearm will be on the cover of the American Rifleman and the American Hunter reaching into approximately 2.7 million American households.

After the presentation, NRA will announce its nationwide voter registration effort among sportsmen keyed on the slogan "never disarm, register to vote, your gun rights depend on it." The campaign will be orchestrated through hundreds of thousands of firearms dealers during hunting season and throughout the following months. We will target approximately 20 key states using mailings, brochures, cardboard stands, sportsmens clubs and radio spots. NRA will utilize the total resources of the organization in this campaign including the field staff around the country. In those states with postcard registration such as Texas, the potential is extremely high for registering 100,000 additional sportsmen.

In the same way the presidential commemorative presentation will serve to initiate the voter registration program, the voter registration program will serve to launch the NRA's 1984 PAC effort which we anticipate being the most massive in the history of the organization. There is not another organization with as much immediate potential to register pro-administration voters as that of the NRA and American gun owners. The key to launching the entire program is the presentation of the Colt Commemorative to you as soon as possible. We would be honored by your Administration's acceptance of this proposal.

Sincerely,

Wayne LaPierre
Director
Governmental Affairs Division

Dear Mr. Deaver,

I am writing to tell you what a pleasure it was to meet you at the meeting on Monday morning, November 14th in Seoul. On behalf of all APCAC members, I want to thank you for your support on the issues so important to American business in the Asia Pacific region.

Perhaps you will recall that I mentioned to you that we have invited the Joint Economic Committee of the Congress to visit this region in January. If there is any way that you can help us in accomplishing this, we would appreciate it. The JEC last visited in January 1980 was very positive results.

We are very pleased with the accomplishments of President Reagan's administration. We look forward to being of help on the issues in any way we can.

Sincerely,
