MEMORANDUM TO DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE KENNETH W. DAM

FROM:

MICHAEL K. DEAVER

hude

SUBJECT:

Ambassadorial Appointments
Career vs. Non-Career

I have asked our Personnel Office to compile the following statistics with regard to United States Ambassadorships.

Of the 121 countries that currently have sitting Ambassadors 82 or 68% are career and 39 or 32% are non-career. Since July 1, 1983 27 new Ambassadors have been appointed, of this number 22 or 81% are Career Foreign Service and 5 or 19% are non-career appointments. I hope these figures will help you if difficulties arise with the Bill Love appointment.

Dear Mr. Schultheis:

Thank you very much for sending me the brochures on Robledal. It certainly is a beautiful piece of property. I will talk to my colleagues about the estate but I must inform you in advance that we have no plans of purchasing property for the White House.

Thank you again for taking your time to send me the information.

Dear Mr. Deane, Baker & Mr. Paindexter,

Please accept these four brochures. I feel that this Hope Ranch property could be of interest to the White House Staff and advisors especially with the 2nd "Reagan Term" near. Would you gentlemen kindly see that the President and Mrs Reagan have the opportunity to view this. This home is adjacent to their avid supporters and friends' Fess Parker and Barney Klinger.

Best wishes for a sunny S.B. Stay.

Thanking you in Advance.

Dear Mike,

During the meeting with the President yesterday morning, he quoted an article by Benjamin J. Stein which was published in PUBLIC OPINION about how little teenagers know about American history.

For my daily commentary on Mutual radio, I am constantly looking for interesting stories and thought that particular article was fascinating. I thought the President might enjoy seeing a copy of my commentary on Ben Stein's article, which was aired on October 13, 1983.

Sincerely,

Guy

THIS IS GUY VANDER JAGT:

Although his methods were admittedly unscientific, Benjamin Stein discovered an almost unbelievable obliviousness to the world among the Southern California teen-agers he interviewed over the last two years.

Writing in the pretigious PUBLIC OPINION magazine, Stein said that he had not yet found one single student in Los Angeles who could tell him when World War II was fought. A journalism major at USC thought it was sometime in this century.

Upon being told that we fought a war in the Pacific against the Japanese, many wanted to know who won.

Only one student could identify Joseph Stalin. One guessed that Salin was President just before Roosevelt.

Only two could even approximately identify Thomas Jefferson; only one the date of the Declaration of Independence, and none could explain the Bill of Rights.

Most tennagers were amazed that there were countries around Russia controlled by Russia. One wanted to know why President Reagan doesn't make them stop.

If Stein's study is at all characteristic, this country could be in deep trouble.

If our young people have no idea when or who or why World War II was fought and have never heard of the Bill of Rights, they can't possibly understand why we are such a uniquely privileged nation.

People without an understanding of how unique America really is are not likely to value what we have enough to expend the effort and make the sacrifices necessary to keep it.

Professor Challenging Mello for Senate Seat

Herald Salinas Bureau

SALINAS — A college professor and leader in a statewide campaign for the voucher system in education Monday entered the race for the 17th District State Senate seat, challenging the incumbent, Sen. Henry Mello, D-Watsonville.

Roger Magyar, a 39-year-old Republican who grew up in Pacific Grove and who has lived in Sacramento in recent years, filed a declaration of intent to become a candidate with the Monterey County Elections Department.

The declaration is the first step in qualifying for the June 5 primary ballot. The formal nomination period opens next Monday.

Mello plans to file his declaration today in his home county of Santa Cruz, according to Kevin LaGraff, his Monterey assistant.

Magyar has taken a leave of absence from his job teaching economics and statistics at Sacramento City College to campaign for an initiative that would give California parents $2,000 for each child, to be used to educate their children at either a public or private school.

Magyar defended the proposal in an interview published in The Herald last month, and said Monday he plans to make educational reform a central issue in his campaign against Mello.

After attending Pacific Grove schools, he graduated from Occidental College and from the Harvard Business School, and later served as an aide to Ronald Reagan when he was governor of California.

He is the son of Stephen Magyar, prominent Peninsula banker who is now with Monterey County Bank after retiring as president of Monterey Savings and Loan. Stephen Magyar ran unsuccessfully for the state Senate in 1964 against former Sen. Fred Farr.

Roger Magyar said he has re-established residency in Pacific Grove to qualify as a candidate in the 17th District.

In other legislative and judicial races for which declarations of candidacy must be filed by Wednesday, all of the incumbent Superior Court judges and two state assemblymen representing the area have filed.

Superior Court Judge Richard Silver filed Friday, joining Judges Edmund J. Leach Jr., Maurice Jourdane and John Phillips, who filed earlier last week.

Also filing Friday were Assemblyman Eric Seastrand, R-Salinas, for the 29th Assembly District, and Assemblyman Sam Farr, D-Carmel, for the 28th District.

Dear President Reagan;

I am sending this original tape and plastic pressing from your incredible campaign that resulted in your California gubernatorial election. I also take particular pride in being a part of the "Old Gang" from Death Valley Days, GE Theatre and the subsequent trips through the campaign trail on your behalf in electing one of our greatest leaders in history. I sincerely hope that your future Presidential Library may possibly utilize these items as an historical contribution to, quote: "The Making Of A President".

I am proud of you and Nancy and your family in leading all Americans to a better life. I am particularly appreciative of your attention to Tex Saunders, our key grip on DVD, of your personal call after the tragic plane crash on the Potomac River that claimed the life of his son. We, in Hollywood in respect to you, know and love you for this. Also, your efforts as the Governor of California in the matter of the American fishermen will always be respected and remembered through your personal interest in preserving a heritage that we must maintain.

Finally, I must say that being a veteran of WWII and Korea in the Marine Corps, I believe that your defense and military prognosis is in keeping with the finite wishes of success in the minds and hearts of every true American. I pray that you maintain your expertise in leading this great nation in preserving the American way of life.

FROM: MICHAEL K. DEAVEY^{2D}
Assistant to the President and Deputy Chief of Staff

SUBJECT: 1984 Summer Olympic Games Responsibilities

As White House liaison for the 1984 Olympic Games in Los Angeles, I would like to reiterate the need for a fully coordinated federal effort in support to the Games. While the White House Task Force continues to meet on a regular basis, it is imperative that all members of the Executive Branch are aware of their responsibility to keep this office informed as to their activities in regard to the Olympic Games.

This White House coordinating role is imperative if we are to make available all the appropriate resources at our disposal. Each agency should continue to assume their traditional responsibilities, however, it is vital that this be a truly cooperative effort.

Assisting me in this endeavor will be members of my staff, William Sittmann and Kenneth Hill. Mr. Sittmann will be assisting in the overall coordination and Mr. Hill is focusing on the security aspects of the program. It is essential that we be made aware of all activities involving Federal support to the Los Angeles Olympic Organizing Committee or to appropriate state and local jurisdictions.

I just read an interesting article in Broadcasting magazine about you and the President's activities in television. The article mentioned that you were considering hiring a television coordinator to assist the President in polishing his performance on-camera, etc.

Should this prove to be true I would like to be considered for the position. I have the qualifications and credentials such a job would entail, and would find working for Mr. Reagan and his Administration very rewarding personally. I also have a current security clearance, although probably not at that level, since I am active in Wisconsin's National Guard.

Should you be in a position to accept resume and credentials now or in the future, I have included them with this letter for your file.

Keep up the good work, I hope that I shall hear from you.

Dear Dan:

Thank you for your recent letter and the resume of your brother. I have forwarded both to Mike McManus who will follow up on filling this position. You should be hearing from him soon.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEEVER

Dear Mike:

This week's Broadcasting magazine says that you may be looking for a television coordinator.

Enclosed is a resume of Mike McKinnon, my brother, who owns or operates four television stations.

He is a sensitive producer and director of political spots and a ramrod, no-nonsense get-it-done leader.

He served as a State Senator in Texas and understands politics well. He is one person who might be a big asset to you and the campaign as you search for a television pro to assist you.

His office phone is: 512/853-7700.

Best regards,

Dan McKinnon

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 20, 1984

Dear Mr. Chambers:

It is my pleasure to inform you that your father has been selected to receive the Medal of Freedom posthumously from the President of the United States for his contribution in the field of public service.

The awards ceremony and luncheon will take place at the White House at 12:00 noon on March 26, 1984. Due to limited space you will only be able to invite four guests. Please contact Bill Sittmann (202/456-2861) in my office for further details.

With the President's best wishes,

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEEVER
Assistant to the President
Deputy Chief of Staff
