Dear Mike,

I am very sorry to have missed seeing you this time in Washington and do hope that you are well on your way to a full recovery.

It was both a pleasure and honour for me to share in the Presidential Inaugural although I must say I was not quite prepared for the freezing weather that assailed the Capital during those two memorable days. Needless to say, I am grateful for all the arrangements you made for me.

I know about your impending departure from the White House to enter private business and this of course means an important change in outlook for you. The decision was no doubt taken after long and careful considerations and may I wish you every possible success.

As soon as you have fully recovered, I would very much like to have the opportunity of a good talk with you and if you so prefer, I could perhaps ask Paul Lee to make an appointment to see you first.

With warmest regards to you and Carolyn,

Yours ever Y-K.

Bill ^{what's} this?

Dear Niece,

As sit here among the beauty of the snow covered mountains of Pennsylvania observing the peacefulness of the snow flurries and the serenity of the skiers, it is hard to imagine the pace, excitement and commotion of last weekend! I hope you were able to watch a bit of your "production" via TV. You must have been proud. It was a spectacular show!

One of the highlights for me personally was to be able to work with such a wonderful group of talented and dedicated people. Working with you was a real privilege and pleasure. Hopefully your illness only prevented

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: ROBERT C. MCFARLANE RCM
SUBJECT: Reply to Brian Crozier

Brian Crozier, a well-known British journalist, author, and international commentator has sent you a nice letter praising your reelection. He also urges you not to meet with former German Chancellor Willy Brandt. Brandt recently put out feelers about meeting with you, but neither Ambassador Burns nor State support a meeting in Washington.

Crozier also notes his interest in a meeting with you. If you wish, I would be glad to arrange a brief meeting in the spring.

Crozier is a friend of Ed Hickey's who brought his letter to our attention. Ed tells us that you are on a first name basis with Crozier.

Dear Brian:

Ed Hickey has personally delivered your kind letter. Thank you very much for your warm words of praise on my reelection and for your comments about former German Chancellor Willy Brandt.

We have made significant progress in the past four years. I look forward to sustaining that trend in the years ahead, and very much appreciate your support.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

December 19, 1984

Dear Mr President,

I am, of course, among the many on this side of the Atlantic who rejoiced in your sweeping victory in the recent Presidential elections.

I am taking the liberty now of expressing some views on a specific matter, for your personal consideration.

I refer to arrangements, which I understand have been made through the United States Embassy in Bonn, for you to receive the former Chancellor of the Federal Republic and Social Democratic Chairman, Willy Brandt, in the spring of 1985.

It seems to me, with all respect, that there are powerful arguments against your receiving Willy Brandt, and absolutely none in favour.

Since November 1980, Brandt has taken every possible opportunity to denounce you and your policies. In particular, he supports the Sandinistas in Nicaragua and has consistently denounced your Central American Policy.

He opposed the deployment of Pershing II and Cruise, without reservations.

Particularly indicative of his attitude was the occasion on 3 November 1984, when he addressed a public demonstration in Bonn to denounce your Central American Policy. Standing beside him on the platform was Philip Agee, the CIA defector.

He has of course turned the Socialist International into a tool of Soviet policy, with special reference to the undermining of NATO.

One could go on. If you did receive Brandt, or indeed if he were received at any high level in Washington, the only effect would be to increase his own and his party's influence on other Socialist parties in Europe and elsewhere — inevitably, to the detriment of the United States. Conversely, by receiving him, you would, in my view, quite seriously tarnish your own image internationally, and especially in Europe.

My warm wishes

Brian Crozier

PS: I am still hoping that you may be able to spare a few moments to receive me (entirely without fanfare, of course)! If at any time, this were possible, I would of course fly over specifically for that purpose.

RECOMMENDED TELEPHONE CALL

TO: King Juan Carlos of Spain

DATE: February 5, 1985

RECOMMENDED BY: Robert C. McFarlane RCM

PURPOSE: To return the King's telephone call to you of this afternoon.

BACKGROUND:

King Juan Carlos called you this afternoon. We suspect that he will want to express his appreciation for your decision to come to Spain in May. Also, he may indicate that he will be visiting the Southwest of the United States this year and would like, if possible, to meet with you in California. Working with Mike Deaver, we have ascertained that Tuesday, April 9 would be a good day to invite the King and Queen to lunch in Santa Barbara.

TOPICS OF DISCUSSION:

1. Express your pleasure at being able to include Spain on your European itinerary in May, and say you look forward to seeing the King.
2. Say that you hope the King and Queen Sofia can join you and Mrs. Reagan for a private lunch in California on Tuesday, April 9.
