Mike

Sorry to learn you are laid up for a spell. I called Stu Spencer to find out how you were doing - but as usual, he was among the missing.

Seriously, I hope you are on the mend and plan to take it a little easier when you go into private life again. The culture shock and decompression isn't too bad. -- I survived it.
But well - Bob Douglas

Dear Mike, llt's
do.

I'm trying to get a close in look at the President before, during and after this State of the Union.

Can I get a phone call
into you sometime Thursday afternoon for details on this ride
up to the Hill, who he meets before the address, what he does
after etc.

Every little bit will help.
Thanks for any consideration
Warm regards,

Dear Mr. Deaver,

I'm sure the frantic pace of Washington must be terribly exciting, but haven't you perhaps ever wished you could temporarily escape to a remote tropical island, where the major decision of the day might be as complex as which beach to explore?

Petit St. Vincent offers just that escape. We are a privately owned, 113-acre island in the Grenadines of the West Indies, and one of the things which makes us so attractive to Washingtonians is the fact that we can be reached in one day from Washington.

A private island for private people, Petit St. Vincent offers its 44 guests total privacy and spectacular scenery and surroundings.

Whether nestled into hillsides, perched high on cliff sides, or positioned right on the beach at water's edge, all of our 22 cottages offer comfortable and spacious accommodations; each cottage has a bedroom with two queen size beds, and a living room with two studio couches. Individual bath and dressing rooms are a nice feature, and what better way is there to enjoy the sight of a Caribbean sun sinking into the western sea, than to do so on the privacy of your wrap around deck or terrace?

There is as much to do here as you like, and as little to do here as you need. Our fleet of Hobie Cats, Windsurfers, and Sunfish sailing dinghies all are available for your use with our compliments, as is our tennis court, equipped for night and daytime play. Snorkelling equipment is available for your use, and arrangements can easily be made for those of you who wish to do some scuba diving, or perhaps deep sea fishing.

Feel like sailing to a nearby island, like Mayreau or Cannouan...? We'll be happy to arrange it on our 40' trimaran.

We respect our guests' privacy and will do all we can to protect it. You'll find our staff of 60+ friendly, attentive, and happy to do all they can to insure your comfort, while you are our guest.

My husband, Haze Richardson, who built the Resort, our entire staff, and myself extend a most warm welcome to you to come visit with us on the Island one day soon.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Mike:

This is to express my sincere appreciation for allowing Esmé and me to participate in the Inaugural festivities. We thoroughly enjoyed ourselves at the Friday night fireworks display, the Gala and the Ball. Your organizational and managerial talents are exemplified by the success of all the events.

Hopefully your new employment endeavors will allow us to get together and I can convey my gratitude in person.

Again, our sincere best wishes to you and your family.

Lou and I were more than pleased when our 1964 picture with the President was returned, now signed. With all his concerns and great responsibilities, we were honored that he took the time to write the nice salutation. But, we Californians have always known the President to be a real gentleman.

Again, many thanks to you and Mike Evans for your efforts.

Dear Michael,

You have made two people
in Arizona so happy with the lovely Jamie Wyeth print. I am having it framed for my artist for his 61st birthday - to hang in his new studio in our new home out in the "Chapel". The new home is in open-range country still, and we ran into Cowboy Artist, Joe Beeler
out there last week punchin' cattle for a friend. It was so real and exciting. Joe and his wife Sharon live here in Sedona, so we are forming an entire group of new friends who are also productive.

and fun. We absolutely adore "Seena"
"Seena". You just should try a vacation
here. We do have a guest room.

I am so pleased for Mr. Ed Meese. I watched several hours of C-Span and feel the actions of Metzgerman, Kennedy and Biden will change people's minds
about voting them in again next time.

So sorry you were ill and do
hope all is well by now.

Thank you again for making our lives so happy. We adore watching

"America's Sweethearts" dancing the night away January 21st!! Pleasure

Take care and many God Bless you

Dear Michael,

I'm deeply sorry, first, to have heard about your illness and that you have been hospitalized. I had hoped that you would have returned home by now.

I've spoken with Donna Miller Blume a couple of times to ask how you are. Whatever it was raised great concern until the press indicated it was a kidney ailment, which still leaves me concerned for your well being. I only hope that you recover quickly and continue on your very special course of life.

Michael, I was truly touched by you asking me to share an experience that will be another highlight in my life. And, I believe, in yours also. You see, I was impressed with your love for the piano, and then your power of concentration... not to leave out your flexibility in perfecting both of our performances. You really are a very special man.

Once again, I wish for you a most speedy recovery and look forward to seeing you.

Warmest personal regards,

Dear Mike:

The news that the Army Corps of Engineers will issue a "dredge and fill" permit for Westway is tremendously gratifying to all of us who have supported this important and visionary project. After years and years of discouraging and costly delays, this project can now be in construction within months. Westway will enable New York to recapture a major portion of Hudson River frontage for the enjoyment of generations of New Yorkers and visitors alike, at the same time that it completes an essential transportation link. I have no doubt that Westway will come to be viewed as one of the most important public projects in the nation's history and a source of pride to all its citizens.

Your advice, encouragement and assistance have been key to enabling the project to reach this point. On behalf of the New York City Partnership, the Chamber of Commerce and Industry and all those who have joined with us in supporting Westway, I would like to express my deepest appreciation for your efforts.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Mike,

I'm sorry you have been so under the weather during the period of great celebration.

I could see at the private swearing in that you were not up to par and then heard it got so bad you had to be taken to the hospital.

I hope they are treating you well and that you will be up and about real soon.

Connie joins me in this hope and our best wishes go out to you for a speedy & complete recovery.

Dear Mr. Deaver:

Thank you very much for your answer to my suggestion that President Reagan visit New Hampshire as he travels to Canada. However, I might still state that the people of New Hampshire who did so much to twice guarantee that he and Nancy be residents of the White House would like a personal visit at some time as a gesture of gratitude.

Being the persistent type, I will continue along those lines. If this spring's trip to Canada is not the right moment, surely there must be more moments along the way. From Washington to New Hampshire takes little flight time, so I will, as I told you, not give up.

I do, however, thank you for the courtesy in writing.

Dear Mr. President:

We are writing in regard to the official working visit on the 5th and 6th of March of the Prime Minister of Italy, Bettino Craxi. We believe it would be appropriate that the Prime Minister be invited to address a Joint Meeting of the House of Representatives and the Senate, and we ask that you arrange for such a joint meeting.

As you know, as well as being the sitting President of the European Community, Prime Minister Craxi heads a five-party coalition Government which has been staunchly pro-West, pro-NATO, and pro-U.S. Italy has become one of our most consistently supportive allies. With Italy's strategic location, they play a key role in NATO in the support of the U.S. through thick and thin in Lebanon, they are members of the Multi-National Force and observers in the Sinai, and they have intensified their cooperation with us in narcotics interdiction. Italy has played a courageous and leading role in combatting terrorism while maintaining the principles of the rule of law and human rights.

Through a number of postwar cabinets, Italy has maintained basic lines of democratic and western-oriented policies. Our bilateral relations are excellent with traditionally strong historical, cultural and political links. We should do everything in our power to support a friendly coalition government in Italy. A Joint Meeting with the Congress would provide an excellent opportunity for Americans and Italians alike to demonstrate our solidarity.
