Mr. Michael Deaver
THE WHITE HOUSE
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mike,

Our Third Anniversary Dinner at which we honored Vern Cristina was very successful. The congratulatory letter from the President did much, of course, to make it a class affair.

Thank you, Mike, for all your efforts on our behalf. And thank Shirley Moore for us too. She's very understanding.

We hope to be moving onward and upward very shortly and have 800 to 1,000 stations carrying our one-minute spots. We feel we're sitting still with only 200 stations.

May God be good to you and the family always.

Sincerely,

Wm. Lester

Dear Mr. Deaver,

On behalf of my partner, Bernie Swain, it was an honor and a pleasure to meet you Wednesday evening at the reception hosted by Lyn Nofziger.

As a reminder, we have served as Mr. Nofziger's lecture agent since February of 1982. And as we had indicated to you in an earlier letter we would like to work with you at such a time you feel is appropriate.

Sincerely,

PERSONAL

Dear Mike:

I detected your Machiavellian handiwork in the telegram which the President sent to our Governor's Prayer Breakfast Thursday before last. It was a highlight of the event and was well received by all 2,200 participants -- even the Democrats. I'm sure the President will hear directly from Governor Deukmejian, but I want to add my thanks both to the President and to you.

Martha joins me in kindest regards to you, Carolyn and the children.

MEMORANDUM FOR MIKE DEAVER

FROM: CRAIG L. FULLER CS

SUBJECT: New Technology Group

I have been conferring with Bob Galvin, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Motorola about the possibility of having a small group meet with the President to discuss new and high technology.

We have developed the following outline which would lend itself to another Sunday evening session.

The participants would be CEOs and one or two scholar/researcher types. Bob Galvin has suggested David Packard and the chairman of IBM.

The discussion would focus on:

- Broad review of the impact of technology on American life, society and industrial productivity.
- Brief demonstration of some of the products and applications of new technology. The demonstration would not be elaborate and would require minimum set-up time. The idea is that the demonstration would give the President a feel for how the new technology works, how it gets things done and where new technology is going.
- Some historical perspective would be provided.
- There would be a description of what the new technology industries are contributing to society...of their anti-inflationary aspects and of their military applications.
- Emphasis during general discussion would be on: the health of the industry; threats to the American industry; the investment needs of the industry; strategic approach of other countries and its expected impact on American industry.

Mike, this is one that is really worth doing. Bob Galvin has given a great deal of thought to such an opportunity and it could be the first of several discussions (not all involving the President) that advance the President's commitment to advance America's new technology industries.

Dear Mike:

I want to thank you again for all your assistance in making the President's trip to Chicago on January 19 a tremendous success. Several times I was told how helpful you were to the people putting together the Salute to the Senate Leadership dinner to kick off my reelection campaign. I know that putting together such an event is a major organizational task, and your help was a major factor in everything working as smoothly as it did.

My deepest thanks.

MEMORANDUM FOR JAMES G. ROSEBUSH

FROM: WILLIAM P. CLARK

SUBJECT: First Lady's Participation in TICONDEROGA
Commissioning

The TICONDEROGA will officially join our Fleet after ceremonies to begin at 11:00 A.M., Saturday, January 22, at Ingalls Shipbuilding Company, Pascagoula, Mississippi. This ship will be our nation's most powerful cruiser.

The First Lady's christening of the TICONDEROGA was a landmark event for the Navy, and her participation in the commissioning would reinforce the First Lady's important relationship to our Navy.

I recommend the First Lady's participation in this important event. Please do not hesitate to call on my office for any background material, (Dick Levine, extension 7351).

Mrs. Nancy Reagan

Dear Mrs. Reagan:

It is my pleasure to invite you to attend the commissioning of your ship, TICONDEROGA (CG 47), when she officially joins the U. S. Fleet, in ceremonies scheduled to begin at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, January 22, 1983, at Ingalls Shipbuilding Company, Pascagoula, Mississippi.

Your christening of TICONDEROGA in May of 1981 was a symbol of the spiritual force that gives a ship life and meaning, and the beginning of a special relationship between you and the crew. Your presence at the commissioning will be important to this relationship and will be a great inspiration to the crew as they take USS TICONDEROGA to sea to begin her vital role in the defense of our Nation.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

John Lehman

Dear Mike:

At Christmas I gave members of my immediate staff a photograph of President and Mrs. Reagan. Since then, several Assistant Secretary's and other political appointees who visit my office have admired it and with varying degrees of bluntness have asked if they could have a copy. The number on the back of the photo is C-8691-24. Would it be possible for you to send me two dozen? I'll be pleased to pay for any charges incurred.

Both Barbara and I look forward to dinner with you and Carolyn at Jim Cheek's February 4.

ATTENTION DEPUTY CHIEF OF STAFF

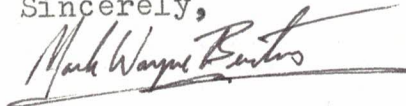

Dear Mr. Deaver,

My name is Mark Burton and I'm a student at the University of Virginia. I have always been interested in seeing the White House, but have never actually been inside the gates. This may, perhaps, be an odd request, and I seriously doubt if you are the person to whom I should be writing, but, I am currently looking for a summer job of some type. Since I plan to major in International Relations (Foreign Affairs), I am hoping to get a part-time job with the government. My mother works at NSWC, so I doubt I'll be able to get a job there.

Is there, by some miracle of a chance, a way that I could work at the White House this summer? I'd really love it if I could. I promise I'll keep my presidential advisings to a minimum (or at least I'll try to). I'm an intelligent, responsible person, and I'm tired of being a "yard maintenance technician" and my job at the local movie theater is getting boring.

I greatly appreciate your time and effort. You must be very busy, and I'm sure I'm not the only one who has made such a request. Thanks again for your trouble.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Burton

Bill:

The President's Commission on Executive Exchange is a one year exchange program that the Federal Government has with the private sector.

Any individual that is a participant in the Commission does so with the understanding that he is obligated to return to his area in the private sector (see the attached biographical form that Walker signed) after the year is completed. Technically, Walker complied with this provision and went back to his company, but only for one month.

June's complaint is that after Walker was with HUD for about six months he started lobbying for a permanent position with the Department, specifically to be Pierce's Deputy. Walker is currently working as a Consultant at HUD for Pierce. The Commission feels that this type of disregard towards the private sector in this particular situation destroys its credibility in recruiting new executives.

June sent this to Mr. Deaver just to make him aware of the situation.

June's husband's name

is Gordon Walker.

what is this?

THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON EXECUTIVE EXCHANGE
THE WHITE HOUSE

January 24, 1983

Dear Mr. Secretary:

As per our previous discussion, I am again registering a strong protest regarding the Department of Housing and Urban Development's recent active recruitment of Mr. Gordon D. Walker, a participant in the 1981-82 Executive Exchange Program. I reiterate that if Mr. Walker accepts your offer, he will be blatantly violating his moral obligations and the Commission's commitment to the private sector.

You will recall that in our initial meeting in April, 1982, I outlined the Commission's philosophy and obligation to the private sector in assuring that their executives would return at the end of one year. The Commission is not an employment agency for the Federal government. By utilizing it as such, a Cabinet Officer is affectively destroying our future ability to attract outstanding executives. The private sector will be unwilling to expose their talented individuals to the government.

We have repeatedly reminded Mr. Walker of his obligation to return to the private sector. His technical compliance with the rules in returning to his sponsoring corporation and immediately re-entering the government does not absolve him from the moral obligations he assumed. Furthermore, non-compliance by Mr. Walker will discourage this Commission from any future consideration of small business executives.

I assume that Mr. Walker has not made you fully aware of his obligation to leave the government. It is strongly impressed upon all our executives, both during initial interviews and continually during the year.

I appreciate your recognition that the Commission has the ability to provide exceptional executives. Other Cabinet Secretaries have experienced identical reactions, but, in keeping with the Administration's spirit of cooperation with the private sector, they have respected our commitment.

I trust that you will respect the Commission's strong stand and not offer Mr. Walker a position with your department.

I understand that inherent in the President's Executive Exchange Program is the commitment to return to the sponsoring organization at the completion of the exchange year (365 days). This commitment demands that no offer of permanent employment be considered at any time during the exchange process, from initial interviews to reentry into the sponsoring organization.

XEROX

February 3, 1983

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I have learned from June G. Walker, Executive Director, The President's Commission on Executive Exchange, that your Department has made an offer of permanent employment to Mr. Gordon D. Walker, a participant in the 1981-1982 Executive Exchange Program.

I am concerned about this action because it violates a basic requirement of the Executive Exchange Program. Xerox Corporation is and will continue to be an active participant in the Executive Exchange Program. We ensure that our participating organizations clearly understand that they may not, under any circumstances, make an offer of employment to a Program participant. We would expect participating agencies in the Federal Government to meet this requirement as well. Failure to do so will certainly limit the number of private sector candidates for this most worthwhile Program.

Sincerely,

David T. Kearns

Your and Mrs. Reagan's warm hospitality on the evening of 15 January will always be remembered by all of us that you greeted, put at ease, and entertained in the White House. We are especially grateful to Secretary Pierce, and to Mel Bradley and Mike Deaver of your staff, who showed every courtesy and went out of their way to be helpful to us in planning our participation in your reception.

I believe Joseph Schwantner's new composition, which had its premiere in the Kennedy Center that night and will be heard many more times in auditoria and on records, provides an enduring memorial to Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. It could not have been launched in a more auspicious way than with the active participation and blessing of the White House.

Some 20 months ago Senator Laxalt kindly intervened in my behalf to Mr. Deaver at The White House, requesting a "photo opt." for myself with President Reagan. I am yet awaiting a positive movement in this regard.

Via channels available to you, perhaps you will be kind enough to communicate directly with Mr. Deaver via phone regarding this subject matter.

Most recently I almost reached Mr. Charles Z. Wick at his Watergate residence in Washington as to broaching same directly with the President on occasion of the Reagan-Wick Christmas Eve get-together. However, by the time my message reached him via subordinate Carl Robinson of the ICA, it was alas too late. So, I am now prevailing upon you for this favor. Thank you.

Kindest personal regards and warmest wishes. By the way, I hold a master's degree in advertising from Medill, Northwestern University. It's Saturday, January 22nd, at RFK. The Redskins play the Cowboys at 12:30 P.M., but come to the Lombardi Room around
11:45 A.M.

The enclosed two tickets and parking pass
to lot #5 will make the day easier for you.
Having you with us will add to our pleasure.

Best personal regards.

Yours very truly

Dear Mike:

As you may know, I am scheduled to become Chairman of the California Republican Party at the end of January. To establish a line of communication with The White House, the National Committee and the Washington establishment, I am planning to be in Washington the week of January 24th through the 28th.

During that time, if it is possible, I would like to stop by your office and chat with you. I will call your office as soon as I get to Washington to confirm my visit, and to find what would be the most convenient time for you.

Sincerely,

Ed
