dear

Dear Nels

Certainly happy to hear you are completely recovered. - whatever you had succeeded pretty soon. We missed you at the Inauguration. - we would have written before but I got that 'speedy'
fever & was in bed with fever & a cough in Century City, until last Sunday!

We are much worried like you are articles so we can send 'that "Candy,"

to you - Change soon though you want it at the same time. We think you are very special and happy too, so wonder being you like you so ---

I know how deep, you need to need to see your life & how deep that day needs are you will see having
you on this "to be everything was perfect!"

— The day of memory & end
to your address
No other over time
your place!!

Dear Mike

Only to honor "you" would Bob & I do this right. His awful ears & I think are not completely cured - so listening is diff. cell.

We both thought your speech
superb - I've never heard anyone make poetry in his tribute to our President!
We would love to have a copy of your speech, if you don't mind sending
us. — It is one, we would like to keep forever!!

Hope the President and Nancy have heard from others how great you were. I for one, am calling you!!

Dear Mike:

I'm sorry I missed you at the reception. I looked for you and didn't locate you. Everyone was very pleased. It was a most successful meeting in the briefing room on the Academy and National Fitness Testing Week which is from June 6 - 12, when every Governor will perform an act of fitness which the President kicks off with a swim.

Everyone was enthusiastic . We are building an interest in fitness at every level.

Thanks for your cooperation. Warmest regards.

Dear Mike:

Here are some hints that I hope you find helpful:

1. Eat fiber foods to help keep bowels open and eliminate strain.
2. No lifting - puts pressure on the inguinal region.
3. No rigorous or strenuous exercising such as sit ups.
4. Light swimming - running in place in the pool is good.
5. Use of a stationary bike is best because it can be adjusted to your needs.

I hope to see you along the way.

Dear Mike,

It seems like yesterday that I was writing to tell you I was leaving the Department of Labor. Actually, it has been nine months and I am sorry it has taken so long to let you know of my whereabouts.

Last November I joined the Edudata Corporation. Edudata was a New York based microcomputer services company that I have since moved to Princeton. The last nine months have been difficult but productive. All of my efforts have been dedicated to reshaping the company with some success; on August 7th Edudata had a successful common stock offering and we are now a public company. I feel Edudata is now well poised for the future and I am taking a deep breath before the next big push.

How is life in Washington? I certainly hope things are going well and it would be nice to see you again. Please stay in touch and I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Albert Angrisani
