Dear Mr. Deaver,

I am 82 years old and a retired teacher and I'm collecting autographed photos of all outstanding and great men of our country, which I'm going to give to my grandson as part of his graduation gift from college this coming June. His name is Richard Kotte and he is majoring in political science.

I wonder if you would be kind enough to mail me an autographed photo of yourself to him, so that I may add it to this collection.

Thanking you for any help that you may give me in this project and may God bless and guide you to future success, good health, happiness & Peace.

Yours truly,
Fred Giffoniello

P.S. May all your prayers be answered.

Dear Mr. Deaver:

My friend and I were sorry to hear that you were planning to return to private interests so thought that we better make this contact.

We are members of the Resident's Assn. at a very fine retirement complex, and we have just selected for the year 1985 our project - The Reagan Administration.

Mr. Deaver, would you please consider granting us "two" personally signed photographs and two biographical sketches?

We understand that it is most difficult to get mail of this type to the official's desk and that most photographs are signed by an automated pen signature. We hope that through the cooperation of your secretary that we might receive two photographs personally signed by you. We so desire to have an authentic project for the year with personally signed photographs, Mr. Deaver. Would appreciate this kindness very much.

Sincerely,

H. Patricia Burkett

Dear Mr. Deaver:

As a hobby, over the years - I have collected historical documents, manuscripts, letters and autographs of world leaders - American statesmen and political leaders, and I would like to obtain your autograph for my collection.

To date I've acquired over sixteen hundred items, from signers of Declaration of Independence and Constitution - Presidents of United States - members of their cabinet and staff - civilian and military leaders of Revolutionary War - Civil War and World War II etc.

Included in the collection of course is that of President Reagan and most of cabinet - (two never reply to my request - Margaret Heckler and Wm Clark). But Mr. James Baker and Edwin Meese have replied.

I do hope you send me your autograph. Return postage is enclosed.

Respectfully yours,

F. Donald Quigley
