MEMORANDUM FOR: JAMES A. BAKER, III
→ MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM: EDWARD V. HICKEY, JR. E.V.H.

SUBJECT: SEQUOIA

Former Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy Robert Forneau contacted my office recently to verify a call he received from the RNC. Mr. Forneau had been asked to join a group of individuals from the private sector in raising $2.5 million to buy the SEQUOIA and donate it to the White House. He understood that "The White House" agreed to accept the yacht as a gift. When informed that the Military Office had no knowledge of this, Mr. Forneau said it confirmed his doubts and he would ignore the call from the RNC. He did, however, volunteer his services should they be needed (phone: 374-7242).

I thought you should be advised that this is the second rumor I have heard since the election about SEQUOIA's return to Presidential service.

As with the "Air Force One replacement" issue, I recommend you notify the senior staff of our intentions regarding the SEQUOIA.

SUBJECT Partial Power Outage at Camp David

Bill Sittmann requested some information concerning the partial loss of power at Camp David on 30 November 1984.

A 600-amp fuse in the circuit supporting the projection room blew. After the source of the problem was determined the fuse was replaced and power restored. Unfortunately, the movie had to be cancelled due to the time it took to locate and correct the problem.

MEMORANDUM FOR: BILL SITTMANN
FROM: COLONEL M. P. CAULFIELD
SUBJECT: Air Force One Replacement

The cost estimate ($500 million for two aircraft) in our November 26 memo was provided by Secretary Orr. Further research indicates a range of $320 - $387 million may be closer to the real price. These estimates relate only to the B747SP.

The reason these aircraft are much more expensive than commercial counterparts is the extensive modifications for Presidential use, in particular, communications and survivability features for the Commander in Chief.

Further refinement of cost estimates would require contact with Boeing and McDonald Douglas. I would caution that all aircraft figures will be unreliable. Military aircraft costs depend on what is included and how badly the manufacturer wants to make the sale. In any event, we have not asked for bids. To do so would be tantamount to announcing publicly that we intend to replace Air Force One.

SUBJECT

Military Aides to the President

Attached are the biographies and photographs of the replacement military aides. We interviewed twenty-eight of the best officers in the services and chose three top-notch officers.

Attached is a training syllabus in which all of the aides will participate prior to assuming a full duty status. The training begins in mid-June with a full-time, two week Disaster Preparedness Course and continues throughout July. It is the first time we have ever institutionalized the aide's training. I believe it is important to have all of the aides fully prepared prior to August 1st, well before the campaign.

MAJOR ROBERT R. IVANY, UNITED STATES ARMY

Major Robert R. Ivany was born in Wels, Austria in February 1947. The Ivany family had fled there from Hungary in 1944 and eventually emigrated to the United States in 1950. Major Ivany was raised in Cleveland, Ohio where he graduated from St. Ignatius High School in 1965. He entered the United States Military Academy and was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant of Armor upon graduation in 1969.

Major Ivany initially served as a tank platoon leader and armored cavalry troop commander with the 3d Armored Cavalry Regiment at Ft. Lewis, Washington. In 1971 he was posted to the Republic of Vietnam where he commanded a cavalry troop. During his tour, Major Ivany was wounded in action and decorated for valor. After service in Vietnam, and subsequent tours in the United States, he married the former Marianne O'Donnell from Grafton, Ohio.

Major Ivany and his bride then attended the University of Wisconsin, Madison where he studied Modern European History in preparation for a teaching assignment with the History Department at West Point. The three year assignment at the Academy also allowed Major Ivany to coach the Junior Varsity Army football team and to complete his doctoral dissertation for which he received his Ph.d in 1980. Following the tenure at West Point, the family moved to the Federal Republic of Germany for a three year stay with the 2nd Armored Cavalry Regiment along the East-West German border.

In 1982, the Ivanys returned to the United States to attend the Command & General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas. A year later, they moved to the Washington, D.C area where Major Ivany became a staff officer in the War Plans Division, Strategy, Plans and Policy Directorate of the Army Staff.

Major Ivany's awards include two Bronze Star Medals, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, the Purple Heart and the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry with Gold Star.

Marianne Ivany graduated from Marquette University in 1974 and enjoys playing the flute, drama and singing. The Ivany children include Christopher (8), Mark (6), Julianne (2 1/2) and Brian (8 months).

MAJOR MARK A. PETERSON, UNITED STATES MARINE CORPS

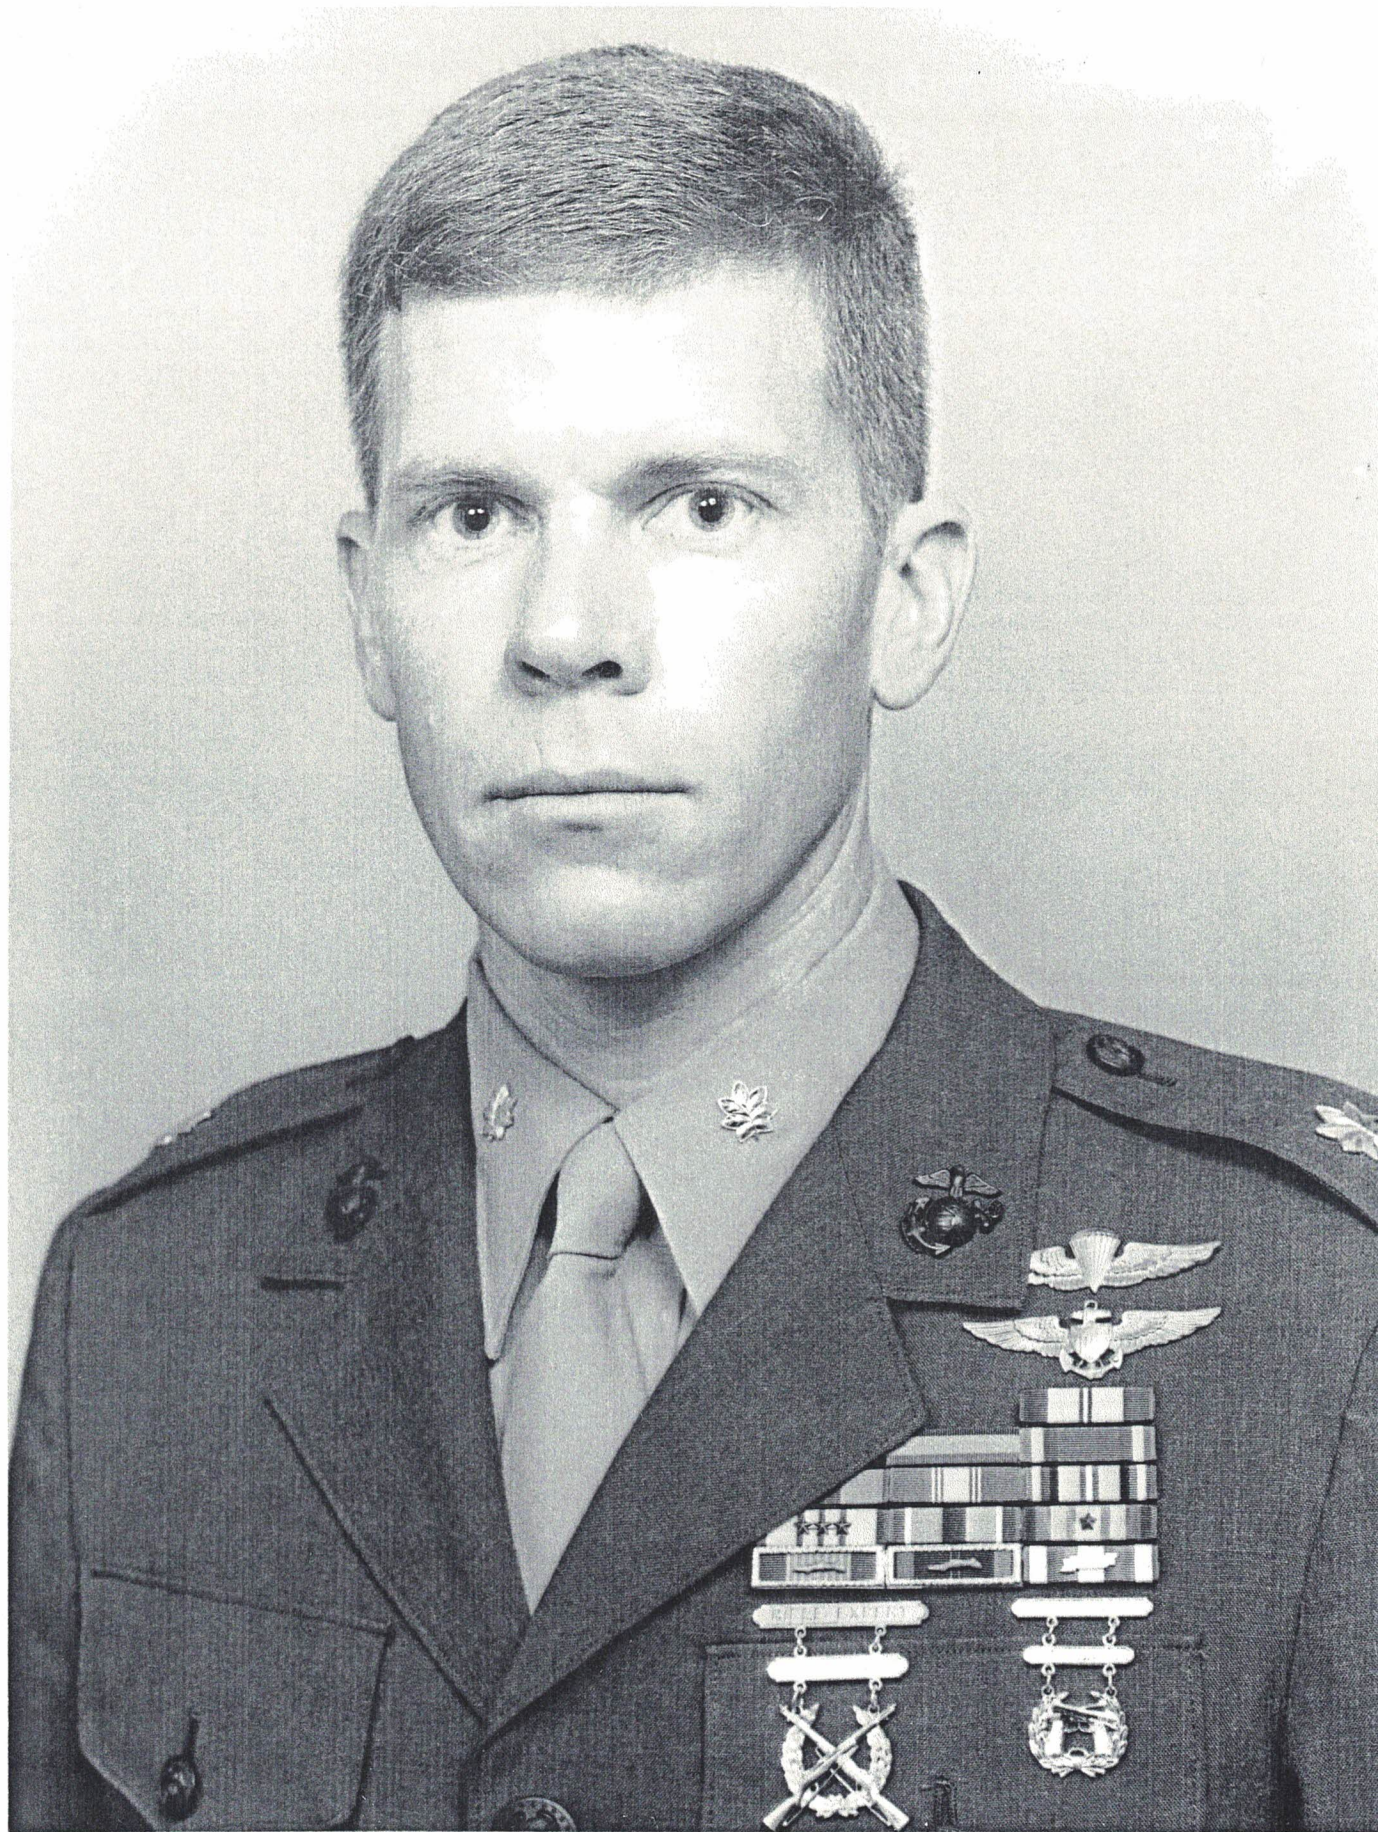

Major Mark A. "Pete" Peterson was born in Akron, Ohio in August 1949. He grew up in Dowingtown, Pennsylvania and attended West Chester State College for two years until he enlisted in the Marine Corps in 1969. He served in Vietnam from June 1970 to May 1971 with the 3rd Battalion 1st Marines as a recoilless rifle gunner and an infantry squad leader. He was discharged a corporal in June 1971 and returned to college at West Chester State where he graduated in December 1973.

Major Peterson was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant upon graduation from college and was assigned to the Basic School in Quantico, Virginia. Upon graduation from Basic School he was assigned to Camp Pendleton, California where he served as an infantry platoon commander for over a year. He was assigned to flight training in August 1975 and was designated a Naval Aviator in November 1976. He served in numerous assignments as a squadron staff officer and CH-46 pilot. During his aviation ground tour with 2nd Anglico he graduated from the US Army Airborne School.

His most recent assignment was with HMM-261 where he planned and flew combat missions in Grenada and Lebanon.

Major Peterson's decorations include the Combat Action Ribbon, Presidential Unit Citation, Navy Unit Commendation, Marine Corps Expeditionary Medal, and the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry. He was nominated for the Air Medal and the Distinguished Flying Cross for action in Grenada.

Major Peterson is married to the former Mary Devereaux of West Chester, Pennsylvania. They have three children; Jessica, Gretchen and Luke.

CAPTAIN (MAJOR SELECTEE) THOMAS L. CARTER, USAF

Captain Thomas L. Carter was born in Memphis, Tennessee in April 1952 and was graduated from Memphis State University with a Bachelor of Science of Degree in Earth Sciences and Geology in 1975. A Distinguished Graduate of the Memphis State University Reserve Officers' Training Corps Program, he was commissioned as an Air Force Second Lieutenant in November 1975. He is married to the former Melinda Keane of Athens, Georgia and they have two children, Kathryn (3) and William (1). He was selected for major in 1984 three years ahead of his contemporaries.

Following his commissioning, Captain Carter was graduated from Undergraduate Pilot Training and assigned to Charleston Air Force Base, South Carolina as a pilot in the C-141 aircraft. During his three years at Charleston, he was upgraded to Instructor Aircraft Commander.

In July 1980 Captain Carter was selected into the prestigious Air Staff Training Officer (ASTRA) Program in the Pentagon. As an ASTRA officer, he was Executive Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower, Reserve Affairs and installations. Following that one year tour, he assigned was assigned as a C-141 Instructor Aircraft Commander with the 14th Military Airlift Squadron at Norton Air Force Base, California. In August 1982, he became the Air Operations Officer for the 63rd Military Airlift Wing responsible for managing all airdrop, air refueling and Special Operations low level training. In October 1983 he became the Chief of Standardization - Evaluation for the 14th Military Airlift Squadron.

Captain Carter is the receipt of the Meritorious Service Medal, the Air Force Commendation Medal and, most recently, the Air Medal for his support of the Grenada rescue mission.

MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEAVER
FROM EDWARD V. HICKEY, JR. E.V.H.
SUBJECT Estimate of Costs For Live Flag Pageant
on the South Lawn

The estimated costs for moving 10,000 troops to the White House on June 14th lies somewhere between $2.1 and $2.4 million, depending on the availability and mixture of air/ground transportation. The figures assume the transportation of local and out of town troops to Washington on 13 June, overnight for out of town troops, rehearsal, performance and immediate return to bases as far from Washington as Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

More significant than the cost, it is simply impossible to plan, staff, and execute such a movement to Washington in in the time remaining prior to 14 June.

- o a movement of troops of this magnitude is unprecented with the possible exception of the 1968 riots and the early years of the Civil War. The exercise would be tantamount to wartime mobilizaion from a logistical point of view with an attendant burden to the civil population, i.e. transportation tie-ups, sanitation, accomodations and police costs, etc.

I strongly recommend you consider civilian options.

SUBJECT: Proposed Presentation of Medal of Honor to MSG
William J. Crawford (USA, Retired)

I would appreciate your reviewing the attached memorandum by LTC Brower. I support his recommendation and have forwarded it to you for your consideration.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 24, 1984

MEMORANDUM FOR: MR. EDWARD V. HICKEY, JR. E.V.H.
VIA: COLONEL M. P. CAULFIELD MC
FROM: LTC CHARLES F. BROWER, IV C.F. Brower
SUBJECT: Proposed Presentation of Medal of Honor to MSG
William J. Crawford (USA, Retired)

Senator William Armstrong of Colorado has requested that the President present the Medal of Honor to MSG Crawford in conjunction with USAFA Graduation on 30 May 1984 (See attachments). Crawford was awarded the MOH in July 1944 for actions in Italy with the 36th Division in September 1943. He was carried as missing for several months and subsequently was identified as a POW at Stalag 2B in Northeast Germany. In July 1944, MG Terry Allen presented the MOH to MSG Crawford's father in a military ceremony at Camp Carson, Colorado. The medal was never formally presented to MSG Crawford after his repatriation in 1945.

The intent of the Army Regulation regarding MOH presentations to living recipients is that the President, the Vice President or, in rare instances, "his designated representative" present the medal to the awardee in a ceremony in the White House. This convention was first formally established by President Theodore Roosevelt in 1905.

This particular initiative is not Crawford's, but rather reflects the efforts of a local Kiwanis Club Chapter in Colorado Springs and Senator Armstrong. I spoke with MSG Crawford today. He does not wish to be portrayed as pushing for the presentation for personal reasons, but would go along with a presentation tied to the USAFA graduation ceremony because of his relationship to the USAFA (he worked there 10 years as a custodian) and the idea that it might serve as a stimulant to the graduating cadets. If faced with a choice of a White House ceremony or a USAFA ceremony, he strongly prefers the later.

We have established that Crawford won the MOH and that it was never formally presented to him. While the regulation supporting MOH presentations specifies the President in the White House, clearly the intent is served by the President presenting the award in the USAFA setting. Given MSG Crawford's relationship at the Academy and his personal desires, I believe we should waive the White House specification.

RECOMMENDATION:

That we recommend to Mr. Deaver that the President personally present the Medal of Honor won forty years previously to MSG William Crawford in a ceremony in conjunction with the USAFA graduation.

Ms. Pam Turner
Deputy Assistant to the President for Legislative Affairs
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Pam:

A staff assistant in my Colorado Springs office has brought something to my attention that I wanted to pass on to you. This might be something you'll want to follow-up on for the President's trip to the Air Force Academy in May.

It seems that Mr. William J. Crawford, one of the employees at the Air Force Academy (I believe he is a custodian) won the Congressional Medal of Honor during World War II but never had the medal given directly to him in an appropriate award ceremony. At the time, it was thought he was killed and the medal was awarded to his father. Later, it was determined that Mr. Crawford had survived and was in a POW camp.

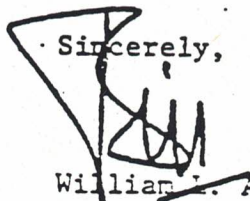

A local Kiwanis Chapter in Colorado Springs has taken this on as a project and believes we should make an effort to give Mr. Crawford the ceremony he never received, even though, of course, he now has the medal from his father. I think that's a very good idea and wanted to bring it to your attention.

After you've had a chance to verify the details with the Defense Department, you might want to see if an appropriate ceremony can be arranged during the President's trip.

My staff and I are ready to provide whatever help you might need, so please don't hesitate to call on us.

Best regards.

Sincerely,

William L. Armstrong

MEMORANDUM FOR ROBERT M. KIMMITT

FROM: CHRISTOPHER M. LEHMAN

SUBJECT: Senator Armstrong's Request

The Department of Defense, OSD/LA, has checked into the matter of having the President, when he visits the Air Force Academy in late May, award the Medal of Honor to Mr. William J. Crawford, an employee at the academy.

OSD/LA has received word that the records of Mr. Crawford cannot be located due to a fire seven years ago. They have obtained press releases proving the award was presented to Mr. Crawford's father. Mr. William Crawford was later confirmed to be a prisoner of war. Now a custodian at the Air Force Academy, he has never been personally presented the Medal of Honor.

At Tab I please find memo from you to Fred Ryan stating that the NSC supports the idea.

SUBJECT: Senator Armstrong's Request

In response to your request (Tab A), I have had DoD look into the idea of having the President, when he visits the Air Force Academy in late May, award the Medal of Honor to Mr. William J. Crawford.

Mr. Crawford's files could not be located due to a fire in the Defense Records Center seven years ago. Evidence has been obtained however, which proves the Medal of Honor for Mr. Crawford was presented to Mr. Crawford's father. Mr. William J. Crawford was later confirmed to be a prisoner of war and he is presently a custodian at the Air Force Academy. He has never been personally presented his Medal of Honor.

The NSC supports the request to have the President present the Medal of Honor to Mr. William J. Crawford.
