MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK

Subject: Presidential Meetings with Foreign Leaders,
September-December, 1983 - Revised List

In a memorandum dated August 11, 1983, the NSC requested the Department of State's recommendations, in priority order, for additional meetings with the President during the remainder of 1983. Our revised recommendations, along with possible dates, are as follows:

- ~~President Koivinto of Finland, September 27 (working lunch)~~ OFFICIAL WORKING VISIT *
- ~~President Mubarak of Egypt, September 30 (working lunch)~~
- ~~Foreign Minister Wu of the Peoples Republic of China, October 17 (60 minute office call)~~
- ~~Prime Minister Craxi of Italy, October 12 (working lunch, plus other activities to be determined)~~
- ~~President Herzog of Israel, between November 21 and 23 (30 minute office call)~~

This memo does not address foreign leaders whom the President might meet while in New York for his United Nations General Assembly speech. We are already addressing this subject separately.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. WILLIAM P. CLARK
THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: State and Official Visits, January - June 1984

The Department of State suggests the following dates for the four state visits which the NSC has already approved:

President Kirchschelegger of Austria - February
President Mitterrand of France - March
President Shagari of Nigeria - April
President Betancur of Colombia - May

We suggest leaving January open in the expectation of a visit by Premier Zhao of China.

Our suggestions, in priority order, for further State and Official visits appear below. The fate of the Zhao visit will dictate how many openings are available.

President Jayewardene of Sri Lanka
Prime Minister Soares of Portugal
President Jorge Blanco of Dominican Republic

Brief justifications are attached.

Covey
Charles Hill
Executive Secretary

Attachment:

As stated above.

JUSTIFICATIONS FOR VISITS

President Jayewardene of Sri Lanka

A visit would demonstrate our continuing support for Jayewardene's government, notwithstanding its recent troubles. It would also highlight our support for the positive example Sri Lanka sets in the Third World through its democratic, free enterprise policies and its influential, moderate role in the NAM.

Prime Minister Soares of Portugal

Soares is a long-time friend of the U.S. who has been supportive on numerous international issues. At the same time, he is an important figure in the Socialist International, of which he is Vice President. The Soares government has been forthcoming in our current negotiations for a new agreement on the strategically vital base facilities in the Azores.

President Jorge Blanco of The Dominican Republic

A visit would demonstrate the importance which the United States places on the continued strengthening of the democratic process in the Caribbean. The Dominican Republic is the largest democracy in the region and is a major supporter of the CBI process. It has an excellent record in human rights and in narcotics interdiction. Since his election President Jorge Blanco has adopted a series of needed but politically costly economic austerity measures. A meeting with President Reagan would demonstrate our support for further reforms.

Subject: [Handwritten initials] Presidential Meetings with Foreign Leaders,
January-June, 1984

WHITE HOUSE
SITUATION ROOM

In a memorandum dated December 10, 1983, the NSC requested the Department of State's recommendations for additional Presidential meetings with foreign leaders during the first half of 1984. We have divided visits into three categories: State/Official visits; working visits; and office calls. Our recommendations for State/Official visits, in priority order, are as follows:

- ~~President Shagari of Nigeria~~
- President Jorge Blanco of the Dominican Republic
- President Jayewardene of Sri Lanka

We note that, in a memo dated August 11, the NSC had already approved a State visit for President Shagari during the first half of 1984.

Our recommendations for additional working visits, in priority order, are as follows:

- Chancellor Kohl of West Germany
- President Suazo of Honduras
- Prime Minister Prem of Thailand
- Crown Prince and Prime Minister Sa'ad al-Sabah of Kuwait
- President Masire of Botswana

Our recommendations for office calls are as follows:

- Dutch Prime Minister Lubbers, January 19-20
- Canadian Leader of the Opposition Mulroney
- Italian Foreign Minister Andreotti, January 10-13
- British Leader of the Opposition Kinnock
- former French Prime Minister Barre

Unlike State/Official visits and working visits, the "office calls" category is not limited to heads of State and heads of Government. It also includes visits by foreigners who are in this country on private business, or are en route to another destination. It is, thus, difficult for us to predict much in advance when these "targets of opportunity" will occur. We realize that the White House is under very heavy scheduling pressure; and we will, therefore, try to provide as much advanced warning of requests in this category as is possible.

Subject: State/Official Visits, July - December, 1984

FOO

Twice a year the Department of State provides the NSC with recommendations for State and Official visits, and also for working visits. Since State visits and Official visits are virtually the same, except that the former is for heads of State and the latter for heads of government, we are here treating them as a single category. Working visits, which are also for heads of State or government but which contain much less ceremony, will be treated as a separate category.

Our recommendations for State/Official visits, in priority order, are as follows:

- President Belaunde of Peru
- President Jayewardene of Sri Lanka (if a visit earlier in 1984 is not approved)
- President Evren of Turkey
- President Alfonsin of Argentina
- Sheikh Zayid bin Sultan, President of the U.A.E.
- President Biya of Cameroon
- Prime Minister Mara of Fiji - how pol. Rep.

Delanadid:

Brief justifications for these recommendations are attached. We will have our suggestions for July-December working visits ready shortly.

TO: The Secretary
THRU: P - Mr. Eagleburger
FROM: S/S - Charles Hill
SUBJECT: State and Official Visits, January-June 1984

By agreement with the White House, the Department of State recommends twelve full-scale State or Official visits by Foreign Chiefs of State and heads of government each year, one per month. We also make recommendations on a regular basis for official working visits, also for heads of state or government but with a simplified Washington program. This memo tries to sort out State and Official visits for the first half of 1984. Once we have NSC approval for our suggestions, we will begin collecting the list of official working visits.

In a memo dated August 11 (Tab 3), the NSC approved four State or Official visits for the first half of 1984 and requested that the Department suggest dates for them. We have done so in the attached Hill-Clark memo (Tab 1), after polling bureaus, and made further suggestions to fill up the first-half 1984 schedule. Bureau views are summarized in the attached chart (Tab 2).

That you approve the attached Hill-Clark.
