Dear Gahl:

Enclosed are two estimates for catering the reception at Blair House on Thursday, January ~~17~~²⁰, 1985. 4-6 P.M.

I had explained to Design Cuisine that we have a few members of the staff who take roles in the pantries, coat rooms, etc.
so they allowed for that in their estimate. Glorious Food estimated without our staff so Philippe Maleval and I will get together later to make the small changes if you decide to use them. I'll be glad to discuss what extra positions are needed that they didn't cover when we discuss details later, e.g. front door.

*OK
Good

Carol*

Since Mrs. Annenberg and Mrs. Tuttle are having a large luncheon here on Saturday, January 19 it seems a good idea to split the cost of the flowers for both functions. For your reception I would recommend a front hall arrangement, a centerpiece on the buffet and a very small arrangement in the front drawing room. David Ellsworth is doing the flowers for Saturday and has said he would be glad to do both functions to split the bill.

My very best wishes to you this Christmas and your wedding day. I'll look forward to hearing from you in early January.

Sincerely,

Carol

MEMORANDUM FOR: WILLIAM HENKEL

SUBJECT: DEMONSTRATION PERMITS

Washington, D.C.

Soon after the formation of the Presidential Inaugural Committee, we in Government Relations Group initiated a series of meetings with the different government entities that constituted the agencies with which we would have liaison. One of the key agencies from our point of view was the National Park Service. As several of the Inaugural events were to take place on property administered by the Park Service, effective liaison was viewed as imperative.

Unlike some of the other agencies which set up a full-time organization to handle Inaugural matters, the National Capital Region of the National Park Service assigned duties to a small group of people in addition to their normal responsibilities. In this regard, James I. McDaniel, Associate Regional Director, and Kitty L. Roberts, White House Liaison, were designated as the primary points of contact for the Presidential Inaugural Committee. Initial meetings were held with McDaniel and Roberts by the second week in November and a system of regular contacts established.

While many of the Park Services' Inaugural activities are a matter of interest for the PIC, my office became particularly interested in the role the Park Service plays in the granting of demonstration permits for Lafayette Park and the Mall area (including the Ellipse). This topic has become fairly sensitive in the past few years; as a result of recent court decisions, the northeast quadrant of Lafayette Park has been set aside especially for demonstration activities. We initially inquired into the status of demonstrations in mid-November and asked about their status on a weekly basis to the present date. On each and every occasion, we were informed by Kitty Roberts that the only request received was that of an Anti-War group for a small demonstration scheduled on the morning of Monday, January 21st. She noted that this request had not yet been granted, pending an interview with the leaders of the group. Charles Bakaly of our General Counsel's Office indicated to me that he had also received the same response to his inquiries.

Early in December we surfaced the idea that since most of the critical time frames, during the Inaugural period, were still available, it would be prudent to see whether there were any pro-Republican groups that might want to apply to stage appropriate rallies in the demonstration areas. It was agreed that Margaret Tutwiler's Division would handle such contacts. Hearing nothing further on the matter, everything was believed to be in place.

On December 27th, Mildred Cooper and myself visited Park Service Headquarters and met with Kitty Roberts on a variety of issues. With the Young Republicans in mind, we specifically asked her whether there had been any more requests for demonstration permits. With both of us looking on, she referred to her files and again assured us that there were no requests other than the brief one by the Anti-War group. At this point, not wanting to push the issue and give the impression that the PIC was soliciting for groups to preempt the use of the court-mandated demonstration area, I let the subject drop.

The next day, December 28th, I called Ms. Roberts early in the morning for a double-check on the permit status. Again the answer was the same, none but the one already mentioned. This I reported in the Operations Morning Staff meeting, suggesting we recheck on the efforts of Tutwiler's Division. Later in the day I spoke with Grace Moe as she was preparing to have someone from the Republican National Committee contact the Park Service concerning a possible permit on January 20th and 21st for a Young Republican Group.

At this point the story begins to unravel. Grace Moe reported late that evening that the people from the RNC, upon contacting Sandra Alley's office (Associate Regional Director for Public Affairs and the one who issues the permits), were informed that the area within Lafayette Park was already taken for January 20th and 21st.

The following day, Saturday December 29th, I contacted both Jim McDaniel and Kitty Roberts at home. Fearing that we had been undone by someone in the Park Service, I informed them of what had transpired and insisted that this issue be resolved at this time. They both expressed amazement that there was any problem on the matter. Later that day, at about 5:00 P.M., Ms. Roberts called from her office with what we find to be the real story. Apologizing over the fact that there was internal confusion within the Park Service with the status of requests and permits, she indicated that the following requests had been received and granted:

SUNDAY, JANUARY 20th

Lafayette Park. 12 Noon to 10:00 P.M.

Artists for Peace

Permit issued to this group for all Sundays in January. First applied in May 1984.

Ellipse. 7:00 A.M. - 10:00 P.M. 500 people.

Anti-War in Nicaragua Group

Permit requested in early November.

Note: the Presidential Inaugural Committee has a generic permit for the Ellipse, January 13th - 27th. However, in the event we are not using an area such as this, it reverts to whatever group has a secondary application. At the present time, we do not have plans for the use of the Ellipse on Sunday, January 20th. Perhaps we should give this some thought.

MONDAY, JANUARY 21st

Lafayette Park. 7:00 A.M. to 10:00 P.M. 50 people.
Anti-War in Nicaragua Group
Permit applied for in early November.

Ms. Roberts also indicated for the first time that there is a guideline they go by that directs, "if an applicant has not heard concerning the status of their permit within 48 hours, they can assume that it has been granted." This was news to me and seemed to render moot the fact that the Anti-War Group had not yet been interviewed.

In the final analysis, the early dates that the permits were filed would have precluded our attempts to have pro- Administration groups petition for the demonstration areas. However, the lack of coordinations and internal control within the Park Service raises serious doubts. At present these are being addressed.

I have had a meeting with Mike Deaver who suggested no one currently working on the Inaugural nor current Presidential Appointees be on the Honorary List. These people already have their share of visibility. The purpose of this list is to honor people who have been long time supporters and/or have made a substantial contribution to our President.

Mike has contacted the former Inaugural chairmen and invited them to be Honorary Inaugural Chairmen. Therefore, there will be two categories of people - Honorary Inaugural Chairmen and a category titled Honorary Chairpersons or Honorary Vice Chairpersons.

Honorary Inaugural Chairmen

J. Willard Marriott	-	Inaugural Chairman 1969 & 1973
Robert K. Gray	-	Inaugural Co-Chairmen 1981
Charles Z. Wick	-	Inaugural Co-Chairmen 1981

Second list to be called either:
Honorary Chairpersons
Honorary Vice Chairpersons

FYI, this list is a beginning and will be updated over the next four weeks. If you have any suggestions, please let me know. Thanks.
