FOR: Bill Sittmann
FROM: Doug Blaser DB
SUBJECT: Frankie Welch Meeting

Bill, I am just closing the loop on your request for me to meet with Frankie Welch. I did so on Tuesday, December 11.

She and I had a congenial meeting, during which she inquired about the status of her product proposals and also offered new designs for some soft goods.

I advised her that because of the low profitability of the soft goods items that were sold in 1981, I, therefore, had decided not to include things of that sort in this year's catalog. Though disappointed, I think she's a good businessperson and therefore, accepted my reasoning.

Her submissions that she brought with her for our review had to do with a design for a scarf or possibly, a tote bag. I advised her that we still had her products under consideration as a possible gift or favor and that final resolution had not been determined for those two categories.

As you know, we have now finalized our favors program with John's key ring idea. Therefore, Frankie is not in the running in that category.

Memo to Bill Sittmann
December 15, 1984

This leaves her in the running, so to speak, for a potential staff gift or possible favor that would be given out, say, as a for instance, at one of the state society functions. We have been asked to suggest possible products for a number of these functions by the states themselves.

I have a call into Frankie Welch to advise her of the current status of events as noted in this memo.

[REDACTED]

Dear [REDACTED]

On behalf of The Committee for the 50th American Presidential Inaugural, I am asking for your financial support of the Inaugural Ceremonies. As you can imagine, this celebration is very important to President Reagan and Vice President Bush, so we are asking their friends to help make the 1985 Inaugural the most memorable in history. The theme "We The People - An American Celebration" expresses the excitement we expect.

Although this Inaugural Committee is authorized by Federal Statute, it is financed by private funds. Costs of the entire Inaugural, other than the public events, are paid for by revenue from ticket sales to the balls, parade, galas and other official events, by sales of Inaugural merchandise, by the sale of TV rights and advertising. Because cash flow from the sale of these items will not begin until the last part of December, it is urgent that we raise about $9 million to support operations of the Inaugural until it becomes self sufficient.

Therefore, I am requesting your assistance, along with other selected business leaders, in raising this Inaugural Guaranty Fund -1985. Contributions to this Fund are actually interest free advances which, subject to unforeseen circumstances, will be fully reimbursed before the end of February, 1985, assuming, as we expect, revenue exceeds expenses and none of the fund is required for operations. Revenue from the past six Inaugurals has been more than enough to fully refund all subscribers, as we anticipate will be the case this time. Simply stated, you are lending the Committee start-up cash flow.

We are specifically asking you to serve as a member of the Capitol Committee. By accepting this select position, you are committing to raise a minimum of $250,000 in interest free advances to the Inaugural Guaranty Fund-1985. When you reach your goal you will be given the opportunity to purchase two tickets to an Inaugural Ball and the parade at published prices. No one except the President and the Vice President will receive complimentary tickets. Contributors to this Fund will also be given the opportunity to purchase one ticket to each of those events for each $10,000 advance. Tickets will be on a "first come first served" basis. You will be seated with me in the Finance Committee reserved section which will be in a very good location.

The legal opinion of council clearly states that the committee is a non-partisan, non-political organization permitted to accept donations from individuals, national banks, corporations, labor unions, government contractors and similar persons who would be precluded by law from making contributions to certain political organizations..

I am pleased to tell you that Brad Cook, Ed Forgotson and Rick Hohlt will serve as Co-Chairmen of the Capitol Committee and that Victoria Hughes will serve as the Director. They are available to help you fulfill your commitment.

I cannot stress how urgent this request is. The Committee operations are in full swing and therefore funding is needed NOW! We must raise the full amount for the Guaranty Fund in the next three weeks. Please call Victoria today at 202/433-7697 if you have any questions or if you are ready to commit to help the President and the Vice President one more time by becoming a member of the Capitol Committee

General Chairman Mike Deaver and I both are hopeful of your favorable reply.

RE: PIC - Taxes

Dear Ron:

Joe Rogers has requested our opinion on taxation for the purpose of using it in connection with his activities in the Guaranty Fund. I have purposely reduced in length previous tax opinions, with the thought that it will be more useful and understandable if referred to by contributors and lay personnel at the Committee.

The original of the opinion was delivered to Joe's office on Wednesday to facilitate his work in getting out his Guaranty Fund solicitations.

Enclosed herewith for your record is a copy of the opinion. I am sending copies of the opinion to all those indicated as receiving a copy of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Robert W. Barker

Re: Guaranty Fund Advances

Dear Mr. Walker:

You have asked our opinion with respect to the Committee for the 50th American Presidential Inaugural ("PIC"):

1. Whether the PIC is exempt from federal income taxation;
2. Whether contributions made to the PIC are deductible for federal income tax purposes as charitable contributions; and
3. Whether advances made to the PIC and not repaid are deductible by the lenders as bad debts.

Our opinion is expressed herein in a summary manner consistent with the intended use of this letter for information of donors. If need occurs for detailed references to statutes, regulations and rulings upon which the conclusions are based, interested persons may contact the undersigned.

Tax Exempt Status

It is our opinion that the events which traditionally accompany a Presidential inauguration are essentially patriotic events. As the organization in charge of conducting these events, under the Presidential Inaugural Ceremonies Act (36 U.S.C. § 72, et seq.; District of Columbia Code § 1-1801 et seq.), the PIC comes within the statutory framework of Internal Revenue Code § 501(c)(4), which provides for an exemption from federal income taxation for organizations not organized for profit but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare. While the PIC has not received an Internal Revenue Service ruling, since it was only incorporated on November 16, 1984, we believe there is ample precedent that the PIC is tax exempt for federal income tax purposes.

In past years, committees organized under the same statutory authority and with almost identical powers as PIC have been held not to be political organizations and to be permitted to accept donations from individuals, national banks, corporations, labor unions, government contractors and similar persons who would be precluded by law from making contributions to certain political organizations.

In a prior ruling, the Assistant General Counsel of the Federal Election Commission held as to the 1977 Presidential Inaugural Committee, organized under the same authority as PIC, that the Committee:

"is not a political committee subject to the [Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended], that donations to it are not subject to the limitations of 2 U.S.C. §441a, that it may accept donations from organizations subject to 2 U.S.C. §441b and §441c, and finally that it need not register with and report to the Commission under 2 U.S.C. §443 and §434." */

Contributions Not Deductible as Charitable Contributions

The IRS has ruled that contributions to inaugural committees are not deductible as charitable contributions by the donor for federal income tax purposes (Rev.Rul. 77-283, 1977-2 C.B. 72). IRS apparently concludes that the inaugural committees, as such, do not qualify as § 501(c)(3) organizations. While there are no court rulings, it is our view that contributions to the PIC are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.

*/ Letter from N. Bradley Litchfield, Assistant General Counsel, Federal Election Commission, to Leonard L. Silverstein, November 23, 1976.

Hon. Robald H. Walker
November 21, 1984
Page Three

Contributions made to PIC may, in some circumstances, be deducted as ordinary and necessary business expenses under § 162(a) of the IRC, depending on the facts of each situation. Donors may desire to consult with their own tax counsel as to their particular business situation to consider whether donations are likely to bear a direct relationship with the taxpayer's business commensurate with the amount of the donation.

Presidential Inaugural Trust

The 1981 PIC established a separate Inaugural Trust which confined expenditures to certain entirely public non-political activities qualifying the Trust as an exempt organization for federal income tax purposes under § 501(c)(3) IRC. Contributions to that Trust for permitted uses are deductible by the donor.

The PIC for 1985 is in the process of establishing such a trust.

Deduction for Advances Not Repaid

The initial operating expenses of PIC will be financed by the Guaranty Fund to which contributors advance money. The payments are not donations but advances in the nature of non-recourse loans.

As indicated, this has proven successful in the past. In eight of the last nine inaugural activities, committees repaid 100% of the advances. In 1957, due to unprecedented snow, etc., only 84.71% of the amount advanced was repaid. It is anticipated that the PIC will repay 100% of advances.

However, to the extent that operating income is less than expenses, advances would be applied toward operating expenses. Under the IRC, deductions are allowed for any debt which becomes worthless in a taxable year. A non-business debt incurred by a taxpayer other than a corporation is treated as a short term capital loss (§ 166(d)(1)(B)).

To qualify as a deduction the debt must be bona fide and there must be a reasonable expectation on the part of the lender that the loan will be repaid. We are of the opinion that both factors would be present in advances to the Guaranty Fund.

Hon. Ronald H. Walker
Page Four

As indicated above, the PIC is not a political organization, so the debt would not be disallowed under § 271 IRC. The Articles of Incorporation of the PIC direct that any surplus of funds be paid over to an organization whose function is to conduct similar future Presidential inaugurations, to such charitable organizations as qualify under § 501(c)(3) IRC, or to an agency or instrumentality of the United States for exclusively public purposes.

In our opinion, therefore, advances made to the Guaranty Fund, if not repaid, will be deductible from gross income as bad debts.

Sincerely yours,

WILKINSON, BARKER, KNAUER & QUINN

The President's Authorized Campaign Committee

January 4, 1985

MEMORANDUM FOR JAMES BAKER, CHIEF OF STAFF, THE WHITE HOUSE

Subject: Debt owed to Mr. J.R. Starr, radio disc jockey and newscaster, by Reagan-Bush '84

Background: A UPI story appeared in the White House News Summary on Friday, December 21, 1984, concerning Mr. J.R. Starr, a radio disc jockey and newscaster. Mr. Starr received a check in the amount of $25 from Reagan-Bush '84 for services provided in taping a speech given by Vice President Bush at a rally at the Sun-Maid Growers plant in California. The check was rejected by Mr. Starr's bank and he was charged $2.50 for bank handling fees.

Discussion: A check was issued to Mr. Starr by the Reagan-Bush '84 Primary Committee, in the amount of $25, on June 25, 1984. Since this check was still outstanding at the end of the primary campaign, a stop payment was issued on September 19, 1984, approximately three months after the check was issued.

Although it is our firm policy to contact each recipient of a long outstanding check and request the check be deposited before stop action procedures are taken, I cannot verify that Mr. Starr was in fact notified.

Resolution: We have drawn a new check in the amount of $27.50 for Mr. Starr. The check will be forwarded to him expeditiously.

PRESIDENT REAGAN OWES DISC JOCKEY $2.50

FRESNO (UPI) -- Radio disc jockey and newscaster J.R. Starr became a Republican eight months ago because he liked what President Reagan said he had in mind for the future of America. Now he is wondering if he made a mistake.

It's not the $25.00 the Reagan-Bush '84 Campaign Committee allegedly owes him that has Starr upset. It's the $2.50 deducted from his bank account as a penalty for trying to cash the committee's bad check that he wants reimbursed. "I've written to the president and told him he can keep the $25.00 he owes me but I want my $2.50 back," Starr said. "I told him I need the $2.50 to buy my two grandkids, my son and his wife something for Christmas."

Starr, who is well known for his radio disc jockeying on local radio stations and his annual stint as Santa Claus at Christmas time, was hired by the Reagan-Bush '84 Committee during the campaign to tape record Vice President George Bush's speech at a rally at the Sun-Maid Growers plant. Dutifully, Starr fed Bush's speech back to Washington without a hitch and in a couple of weeks the mail brought him a check for $25.00 from the committee for his efforts. Starr deposited the check in his checking account, reflected the $25.00 in his check register and forgot about it. Two weeks later he received a notice from his bank that the check bounced and that $27.50 was deducted from his checking account by the bank, $25.00 for the check and a $2.50 penalty.

"I'd hate to think that I might end up hauling the President into small claims court," Starr said. "But I think it is only right that I at least get back the money it cost me out of my pocket when I deposited the check."
