Dear Mr. Wisenbaker:

Thank you for your message inviting the Chief of Staff to be Guest of Honor and address the Georgia Federation of Young Republican Clubs Awards Banquet in January.

Your invitation is appreciated, but the heavy demands of Mr. Baker's schedule make it impossible for him to accept. However, he asked me to thank you for your kindness and send you his best wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Stacy:

Thank you for your message to the Chief of Staff. He especially enjoys hearing from students across the United States who take the time to share their thoughts with him.

While Mr. Baker would like to personally answer each and every letter he receives, the heavy volume of mail prevents him from doing so. Nevertheless, he appreciates your thoughtfulness in writing and hopes you will always take an active interest in the concerns of our country. America's future rests in your hands!

With Mr. Baker's warm best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Senator Laxalt:

Howard Baker has asked me to thank you for your note of October 29 enclosing Mr. Henry Zenzie's letter to you regarding the recent economic developments in the stock exchange.

As you are aware, discussions are now underway between the Administration and congressional leaders concerning the budget deficit. As President Reagan said in his statement of October 27, these meetings come at a critical time, and although we have enjoyed the longest economic expansion on record, the events in the stock market have alerted us of potential dangers.

During this particularly important period, we appreciate your interest in sharing with the President Mr. Zenzie's perspective on the situation. I have taken the liberty of sharing his specific recommendations with those members of the Administration who are directly involved in the ongoing discussions. I am sure that they will find his comments informative and useful. Thank you again, for bringing them to our attention.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Walt:

Little did you know (or at least you didn't say) when you submitted your op-ed piece what the last two weeks would bring! I had not thought fully about the parallels between the interwar period and the present day until I read your piece. As you suggest, we are making some progress on the various fronts, but we need to do more. I think we have a chance to do exactly that in the next month or two if everyone works together. Oddly enough, the silver lining of the shock on Wall Street is a renewed interest in cooperation, and I hope we can capitalize on it.

Dear Mr. Davis:

Thank you for your recent letter expressing your opposition to the provision in the Senate-passed trade bill requiring advance notice to employees of plant closings and layoffs of 50 or more employees during any 90-day period.

The Administration will insist on removal of the Senate provision during the House-Senate conference on the trade bill. Contrary to the reported objectives of trade legislation, mandatory advance notice would make American industry less competitive, not more.

In his most recent letter to the Senate on this legislation, the Secretary of Labor stated that inclusion of any mandatory plant closing provisions would make it impossible for the President's senior advisors to recommend approval of a trade bill.

Thank you for sharing your views.

Dear Mrs. Clark:

I am pleased to learn of the fine work you are doing. I have always admired the spirit of Americans who give of their time and abilities to make life better for others.

I am sure you will understand, however, that because of the large number of similar worthy endeavors brought to my attention each day, I cannot extend my personal support in the way you suggest.

I appreciate your efforts to reach me, and I send my best wishes for success in meeting your goals.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
Chief of Staff to the President

Dear Mr. Perry:

Thank you for your recent message.

It was good of you to tell me where you stand on these significant issues. You have no idea how helpful it is for me to hear directly from the American people. I will share your comments with the appropriate members of the White House staff.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Jason:

Thank you for your message to the Chief of Staff. He especially enjoys hearing from students across the United States who take the time to share their thoughts with him.

While Mr. Baker would like to personally answer each and every letter he receives, the heavy volume of mail prevents him from doing so. Nevertheless, he appreciates your thoughtfulness in writing and hopes you will always take an active interest in the concerns of our country. America's future rests in your hands!

With Mr. Baker's warm best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Simon:

It was indeed a pleasure to see you again after such a long time; I thoroughly enjoyed our conversation at lunch. Your kind remarks and pleasant thoughts mean a great deal to me.

Thanks for sending over the materials on the Interagency Task Force on Trade. I will review these portfolios with interest.

Hopefully, it will not be another seven years before our paths again cross!

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.
