Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Howard:

All good wishes to you for much success in your new capacity with the Administration.

Despite statements made by a number of newspapers, as well as yourself, that 1988 is definitely out for a Baker run for the presidency, I am one of those few dumb fellows who cannot understand why such is the case. I am more enthusiastic about it now than ever before. You have my fullest support should you decide to go for it.

Cordially,

Dear Howard:

Other people may think of you as Ronald Reagan's Chief of Staff but I hope you're really there to measure the Oval Office and check closet space.

With your appointment, the President's judgment is getting back on track. I wish you fulfillment and every success in your new job.

Warmest regards,

Dear Howard:

This is just a note to congratulate you on your selection by President Reagan to take on the tough job as Chief of State under the existing circumstances. I have no doubt that he has chosen the best man and by the end of his term, if not sooner, the image of this Administration will be fully restored in the eyes of the American public.

I am sorry to have missed you while you were in town for Lincoln Day. Jane and I were on our annual visit to Barbuda for some much needed relaxation.

Jane joins me in sending our best to you, Joy and your entire family.

We hope to see you soon.

Yours most cordially,

Sam

Dear Howard:

Senator Dole said it all --

"You're the right man, in the right place at the right time."

There are a lot of people out here who believe the President made the best decision possible when he brought you to the White House. There are a lot of us and I'm sure that includes you, who want the President to enjoy the successful Presidency he deserves.

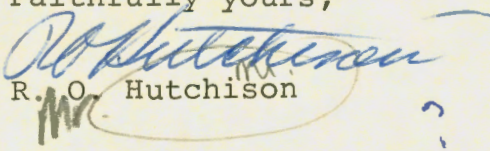

I, along with many, many others, also believe you are the one man who has the ability to set things straight again.

As you know, most of my adult life has been spent in trouble shooting, starting with General Walter Bedell Smith back in the early '50's, inside and outside the government, with appropriate top secret clearances. For the last ten years, I've served as Honorary Consul to Luxembourg.

I am not interested in a government job or appointment, but if I can ever be of any help, (investigation, fact finding missions, program analysis or audits, etc.) you have only to call me at (404) 952-1157.

Good luck with a tough assignment. My prayers go with you.

Faithfully yours,

R. O. Hutchison

Dear Senator Baker:

While I was on a business trip to Europe, I heard of your brilliant appointment as Chief of Staff for the White House. I would like to offer you my most sincere congratulations and best wishes for your continued success in what must be very challenging and exciting responsibilities.

I certainly realize the additional demands on your time, but I would sincerely hope that we will continue to see you frequently at Nicholas, our fine restaurant, which we understand was one of your favorite places in Washington.

I would like to offer you my total support and assistance whenever you and your associates may request hotel accommodations and services.

Looking forward to seeing you at Nicholas soon,

Very sincerely yours,
