ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS:

- To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it repeated, that is, telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the unreported message rate is charged in addition. Unless otherwise indicated on its face, this is an unreported message and paid for as such, in consideration whereof it is agreed between the sender of the message and this company as follows.
1. The company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the unreported-message rate beyond the sum of five hundred dollars; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery, of any message received for transmission at the repeated-message rate beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, unless specially valued; nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines; nor for errors in cipher or obscure messages.
 2. In any event the company shall not be liable for damages, or mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for the non-delivery, of any message, whether caused by the negligence of its servant or otherwise, beyond the sum of five thousand dollars, at which amount each message is deemed to be valued, unless a greater value is stated in writing by the sender thereof at the time the message is tendered for transmission, and unless the repeated-message rate is paid or agreed to be paid, and an additional charge equal to one-tenth of one percent of the amount by which such valuation shall exceed five thousand dollars.
 3. The company is hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward this message over the lines of any other company when necessary to reach its destination.
 4. Domestic messages and incoming cable messages will be delivered free within one-half mile of the company's office in towns of 5,000 population or less, and within one mile of such office in other cities or towns. Beyond these limits the company does not undertake to make delivery, but will, without liability, at the sender's request, as his agent and at his expense, endeavor to contract for him for such delivery at a reasonable price.
 5. No responsibility attaches to this company concerning messages until the same are accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.
 6. The company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the company for transmission.
 7. It is agreed that in any action by the company to recover the tolls for any message or messages the prompt and correct transmission and delivery thereof shall be presumed, subject to rebuttal by competent evidence.
 8. Special terms governing the transmission of messages according to their classes, as enumerated below, shall apply to messages in each of such respective classes in addition to all the foregoing terms.
 9. No employee of the company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

Dear Mrs Roosevelt

I got back on Wednesday afternoon to find a pretty big wood pile which had to be chopped at once, so the letter I had in mind to put on paper has had to be delayed until now.

What a fine time you gave to Isabel & myself whilst we were with you at the White House! We enjoyed every minute, & the most valued of the invisible souvenirs from America which passed your Customs House without examination was the memory of those days. Your book awaited my arrival on board the boat. Some parts of it reminded me of my own wanderings over the same country, especially Ceylon where nothing had been changed when I took my daughters there a few years ago. It is good to preserve these records for one's children. I am getting the book I wrote shortly after my wife's death specially borrowed for you & shall send it to you as soon as I have it, in the hope that you may care for it. Thank you for yours.

Is your husband broken by the weariness which our many interviews must have entailed? I trust not. Our political enemies here have given me a difficult time about such things as the Tariff Issue & the specific results of our conversations, but I am getting through, although the badgering is to be renewed on Tuesday.

I am writing to your husband, but interruptions are innumerable and the letter is long, so it may not catch this post.

Once again I assure you of our gratitude which you, as our hostess, won from both of us and with my best regards to you, your husband (whom I was so delighted to meet) & your family.

Believe me to be

Yours very sincerely
