My dear Governor General:-

I am glad to have your good letter and if one may even think of planning so far ahead, I shall hope to be able to visit you on Monday, June eighth. During the previous week I must attend State Centennials in Arkansas and Texas and the dedication of a monument in Indiana. Therefore, it would be impossible for me to get Ottawa until the morning of the eighth. That is the day the Republican National Convention gathers in Cleveland, and I know you will understand that this makes it somewhat advisable for me to get back home by the ninth!

I hope, however, that later on, after our preliminary political fireworks have subsided, you and Lady Tweedsmuir will come down and visit us at Hyde Park. Or, perhaps, you could continue with us on the train to Hyde Park.

Do you remember a good many years ago delivering the Memorial lecture at the Milton School outside of Boston? I followed you the next year and spent infinite time and labor in seeking even to approximate the excellence of your Address.

It is good for us both to know that the relations between Canada and the United States have never been as close as today.

Both Mackenzie King and I took distinct political chances in signing the Trade Agreement -- but apparently we have been successful.

With kindest regards,

Faithfully yours,

His Excellency
The Right Honorable Baron Tweedsmuir

The President of the United States of America,

My dear Mr President

Norman Armour, your Minister here, has shown me a letter from Mr. Phillips, from which I gather that there is a chance of your being able to pay us a visit here early in June. I need not say how warmly we should welcome it. We shall be still in mourning then, and so can avoid any elaborate ceremonial. But you must stay more than a day. Cannot you give me a day or two, when I could offer you some really good trout fishing in neighbouring lakes? It would give me great pleasure afterwards to go down with you to the International section of the St. Lawrence. I need not tell you how much I should welcome a chance of a talk with you.

I know how desperately busy you must be until your election is over, and I realise what little time you have to spare in June; but I feel that, if it were possible, a visit from you would be most valuable, for Canada and the United States of America have never been so close together as they are at this moment.

With kindest regards and good wishes.

My Dear President

I have delayed answering your kind letter of 15th February until I ascertained from home if I was permitted to cross the border on a private visit without any official fuss.

I have now heard that that is quite all right, and my wife and I will be delighted to go back with you to Hyde Park on a short visit. I hope nothing will come in the way of your visit to us on Monday 8th June. I realise what a desperately busy life you are having, and will be having for many months, and I therefore value the more your kind thought. Nearer the time, perhaps, you will let us have details of your plans, so that we may make adequate preparations.

I am greatly honoured by what you say about my little Memorial lecture at Milton. I remember reading with delight your own address the following year.

May I send you my warmest personal good wishes for your great work?

Yours very sincerely

I am so glad that you and Lady Tweedsmuir will come back with us to Hyde Park. I think you will like the peace of our old place on the Hudson River.

Only one small cloud remains on the horizon and I think it will disappear. Congress is making very slow progress and there is just a possibility that they will not adjourn before June first, the date on which I am supposed to leave for the Texas Centennial, coming back by Indiana and Ottawa. My dear Tweedsmuir:-

The probable continuance of the Congressional Session until well into June makes the trip, on which I had counted, an impossibility at this particular time.

I am thinking of this only as a postponement, and I am looking forward to visiting you later on in the summer. Perhaps you would be good enough to tell me quite frankly what your plans are. As far as I can tell, I shall be comparatively free from the end of July until the first of September -- and the distance between Hyde Park and Ottawa is, happily, short.

My dear President

Thank you very much for your letter of the 5th June. I am delighted to know that the idea of coming to Quebec at the end of July appeals to you. Any date from the 29th July on to the 4th August would suit me to meet at Quebec. I hope to be back from my tour in the Maritimes on the morning of the 28th July.

It will be very easy for you to come up from New Brunswick to Quebec. I shall get the Prime Minister and some of the other Ministers to come there, and I would suggest a state luncheon, at which you will have the chance of saying something to the Canadian people. I need not tell you how greatly I look forward to a talk with you.

All power to you in your "exposition tour"!

My dear Tweedsmuir:-

Your suggestion of Quebec the very end of July is most appealing. I, too, hope to be in or rather off the shore of the Maritime Provinces, for I hope to make a cruise on a small schooner, with three of my boys as crew, during the last two weeks of July, starting from somewhere in Maine and cruising over to the southern end of Nova Scotia (Cape Sable), and thence back to Campobello Island, New Brunswick, where we have long had a cottage.

As far as I can now tell, it would be very easy to take the train from there to Quebec, going from you straight back to Washington. All of this must still be tentative until I know when my Congress will go home. They are in the kind of a tax bill complication which may end next Monday and may continue for another two weeks. Next week, if they do not adjourn, they will take nominal recess during the Republican Convention and I shall try to slip off to the Centennials in Arkansas and Texas, returning immediately to Washington.

OK,

I am greatly looking forward to seeing you. Both of us will have busy summers. My travels will, like yours, be somewhat in the nature of an exposition tour. That, after all, is a very satisfactory way of campaigning.

My Dear President

Thank you very much for your letter of 23rd May. I was afraid that you would not get Congress up in time to come here on the 8th of June.

It would be delightful if we could meet a little later in the summer. I must go to Quebec in about a fortnight, and shall be there until about Wednesday August the 5th, my visit being varied by a tour in the Maritime Provinces. I shall be back from the Maritimes by about July 29th. Would there be any chance of your coming to us at Quebec on the 30th or 31st of July, or during the first three days of August? Then I am entirely at your service. Quebec is just as near Hyde Park as Ottawa, and I could get the Prime Minister to come down to meet you.

I am afraid you are having a desperately busy life. I wish you all health and strength and success.

Hon. Marvin McIntyre,

On March 6th the suggested plan for the visit of Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir was the subject of a memorandum for you from Mrs. Helm, copy of which was sent to me, reading as follows:

"Mrs. Roosevelt says this is all right. She has arranged with Miss Perkins to have Lady Tweedsmuir go with her to the luncheon on April first."

A memorandum has just now been received by Mrs. Helm from Mrs. Scheider reading as follows:

"Mrs. Roosevelt will be late for tea on thirtieth as she goes to Congressional Club. Explain to Executive Office or State Department that dinner on thirtieth is not a family dinner but the Chi Omega. Explain that lunch on first is given by Miss Perkins for Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt will take Lady Tweedsmuir with her."

I have just also learned that invitations for a thousand people for tea on April first from four to six are ready to go out but have taken the responsibility of asking Mr. Rockwell to hold these up for the moment.

I can arrange to have the hour of arrival of the governor general at the station postponed until five o'clock, which would presumably permit Mrs. Roosevelt to keep her tea engagement on that day and still be at the White House upon the arrival of the Tweedsmuir.

Invitations for the dinner on the thirtieth have already gone out in the name of Mrs. Roosevelt alone. The dinner is to honor Miss Katherine Cornell in connection with the National Achievement award. The list includes people prominent in artistic, theatrical, literary and musical circles whom Lord Tweedsmuir might well find agreeable. If the President would find it possible to attend this dinner I believe that, while it is not "the family dinner," originally contemplated, the event would be suitable and interesting.

I do venture to recommend however that the large tea planned for the afternoon of April first be postponed as it seems to me it would be inappropriate to have such an event take place while the Tweedsmuir are house guests at the White House.

I hope you will be good enough to advise me as to what the President's wishes may be.

THE PRESIDENT.

On leaving the United States we carry with us the happiest memories of an unforgettable visit and we cannot adequately express our thanks for all the kindness and hospitality shown to us by you and Mrs. Roosevelt and for the warm welcome accorded by all with whom we came in contact.

My dear Tweedsmuir:-

Your letter comes to me in the Great Plains part of Wyoming. Like you, I am seeing the country but I will not have your thrill of flying up to the Arctic. What fun it would be to see the new Tweedsmuir Reserve! I have heard of its wonderful trout but one of my friends who was in that section a few years ago remarked that the mosquitoes were as large as the trout. I hope he was exaggerating.

I am greatly looking forward to a flying visit to Victoria next Thursday. As you know, a long session of the Congress precluded any possibility of an Alaska trip this year, but I hope much that the four of us can make it next year.

I do not dare be away from Washington long because of the international clouds. I am, as you know, an impatient soul and it is especially difficult not "to speak out loud in meeting." I like to think that you also occasionally suffer in silence in the presence of expert and wise counselors!

I do wish that I might see you more often.

Mrs. Roosevelt joins me in warm regards to you and Lady Tweedsmuir,

Faithfully yours,

I received through Norman Armour yesterday the magnificent gift of your photograph. It is the best, I think, that I have seen of you. I need not tell you how delighted I am to have it. It will be an heirloom in my family, and I send you my warmest thanks.

I have been following with deep interest the recent course of events in the United States. I hope that Mr. Cordell Hull is coming to pay us a visit here in October, when I shall hear more details of your doings. I hope you will have a pleasant and successful time in the West. I see you are doing us the honour to visit Victoria, which, in fine weather, is one of the most beautiful places in the world.

I have just returned from a two months tour of eleven thousand miles, during which I followed both of Sir Alexander Mackenzie's great journeys to the Arctic and the Pacific. I was lucky in the weather in the Arctic, and was able to fly right up to the Polar ice pack. The latter part of my tour was in the new Tweedsmuir Reserve in north British Columbia, a marvellous piece of country which I should like some day to have the privilege of showing

It is good to have your note and to know that you are getting a real rest and will be coming back the end of September.

I missed you greatly on my visit to Kingston and the Thousand Islands Bridge ten days ago but I was made very happy by the warm reception I received in both places and along the road.

What I said at Queens University was so obvious that I cannot quite understand why some American President did not say it half a century ago. However, the occasion seemed to fit in with the Hitler situation and had, I hope, some small effect in Berlin.

Arthur Murray and his wife arrive in New York about October sixteenth and will stay with us at Hyde Park. I take it they will go to see you in Ottawa. It would be most delightful if you and Lady Tweedsmuir could come down to Hyde Park while they are there. As soon as I hear definitely in regard to dates I will write you.

This line is merely to repeat what I have charged my Private Minister to tell you when you meet on the 26th -- how deeply sorry I am to miss the opportunity of seeing you again. I came home in July meaning to take only a few weeks leave but the doctors laid hold on me and insisted on my having a rest and a "cure".

So I can't leave till the end of September when I hope to return to Canada like a giant refreshed.

Writes President that Mr. Norman Armour has talked with the Prime Minister, who is enthusiastic with President's proposal to visit Ottawa in June and welcomes the idea of the afternoon river program. (Intercollegiate Boat Races at Poughkeepsie, N. Y. ?) Says the Governor General desires to accept invitation which he has received to attend the Harvard Tercentenary Celebration next fall, and in order that he may pay his respects to President before that time, Mr. Armour suggests that Lord Tweedsmuir and Mr. Mackenzie King, following the afternoon river program, might accompany the President to Hyde Park and make official call upon him. -- President sent memo to Mr. Phillips on Feb. 15, stating that he thinks Mr. Armour's suggestion is splendid, but that the Governor General and Lady Tweedsmuir would have to understand that they could not bring a staff with them, as he wants to have the Secretary of State and Mrs. Hull, and Mr. and Mrs. Phillips present and there are limits to the elasticity of the house. -- On Feb. 17, President, by memo, referred to the Under Secretary of State, for his information, letter from the President to Lord Tweedsmuir, Ottawa, dated Feb. 15, re proposed visit in June. Copy retained for file. -- On March 30, Lord Tweedsmuir wrote letter to the President stating that he and his wife will be delighted to go back to Hyde Park with President, and he hopes nothing will prevent President's visit to Ottawa on June 8th.

Dear Mr. President:

Norman Armour called me on the telephone this morning to say that he had just had a talk with the Prime Minister, who is enthusiastic with your proposal to visit Ottawa in June and he also welcomes the idea of your afternoon river program:

Norman tells me that the Governor General is very anxious to accept an invitation which he has received from Harvard to attend the Tercentenary Celebration next autumn and, as he could not do this without having first paid his respects to you, Norman makes the following suggestion, which, of course, may or may not be practical. His thought is that Lord Tweedsmuir and Mr. Mackenzie King, following the afternoon river program, might accompany you to Hyde Park and, in this way, make the official call upon you. The Governor General's car would be attached to your train.

There are some advantages in this informal exchange of calls on account of the official mourning which will still be in effect in June. Should instead, the Governor General be obliged to come to Washington, we should have to put on all the ceremony connected with a state visit and this could be avoided by the informality of a call at Hyde Park.

I give you these thoughts for what they are worth. Presumably you will not wish to say anything about the visit to Ottawa publicly until the time draws nearer and until we have taken up the matter formally with the Canadian Government.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) WILLIAM PHILLIPS

President sends memo in re this from Ottawa, suggesting he advise that while the President hopes and expect to be there in June 8th, the contingency of Congress still being here may compel him to abandon his whole trip to Arkansas, Texas, Indiana and Canada. If possible the President thinks they should defer any announcement until the first week in May. - Encloses copy of communication from "Boal" Ottawa, April 9, stating Canadian press has story that President will visit Ottawa in June, which they are holding up for the time being; they would like simultaneous announcements to come from Washington and Ottawa. - William Phillips, Under Secretary of State replied by letter on April 21 to the President, saying the President will note from the enclosed telegram from Ottawa that owing to the premature publicity re President's visit the Governor General suggests in order to relieve his own embarrassment an official statement be issued from the Government House or in Washington. Suggests message. - A message was released to the Press on April 21 stating although the President is deeply appreciative of this invitation he is not certain whether he will be able to accept it. He hopes very much that it will be possible for him to do so.

CAUTION: This address of the President, broadcast by him from Hyde Park on the occasion of the seventieth anniversary of Canadian Confederation, MUST BE HELD IN CONFIDENCE until released.

NOTE: Release to all editions of newspapers appearing on the streets NOT EARLIER than 8:45 P.M., EASTERN DAYLIGHT SAVINGS TIME.

Care must be exercised to prevent premature publication.

STEPHEN EARLY
Assistant Secretary to the President

On behalf of the Government and people of the United States, it gives me sincere gratification to extend a word of greeting to our Canadian friends and to congratulate them on the seventieth anniversary of Canadian Confederation.

Through the years that have elapsed since that memorable July 1st, 1867, we of the United States have watched with the keenest and most sympathetic interest the splendid progress of the Canadian nation which, in ever increasing measure, commands our respect and inspires our affection. Individually and collectively, we pledge you the continuation of our warm friendship. I do not know of any greater gift in the power of nations or of individuals to bestow.

On this occasion the Canadian people will pause to contemplate the changes -- spiritual and cultural as well as material -- of the past seventy years. The field is broad, but in whatever direction you may look you will find just cause for pride. We rejoice with you in your past and your present and in the promise which the future holds.

Ours is an enviable record of friendship and amity, as witness an unfortified boundary of more than five thousand miles as the outward and visible token of mutual confidence and good will. This friendship between our two peoples is secure from every hazard of destruction or misunderstanding because it is based upon a common aspiration to maintain to defend and to perpetuate the democratic form of constitutional, representative government. In that spirit I salute our neighbor of the North. I congratulate the Canadian people on the successful achievements of free institutions through three score and ten years of Confederation. And as one who has spent so many happy moments on Canadian soil, I send you my affectionate greetings.

LUTHER REED

for LUTHER REED

STATE, Secretary of

July 15, 1938

Wires the President on board the U.S.S. Houston, that the Canadian Foreign Office informed the American Legation at Ottawa on July 15th, that the plans of Governor General Baron Tweedsmuir, have been changed and that he will not return to Canada until ~~September~~ and that he will not be able to take part in the border ceremonies scheduled for the month of August nor have the opportunity of meeting him (the President). Indicates that Prime Minister William Lyon MacKenzie King has stated to the press that he intends to replace the Governor General at the dedication of the Thousand Islands bridge on August 18th and the Port Huron-Sarnia bridge on August 19th. Advises that the authorities of Queens University at Kingston and the authorities of the Canadian Government have already been informed that the President will accept the honorary degree from Queens and that this should take place either just before or just after the formal opening of the Thousand Islands bridge. Asks to be informed as to whether the President's own plans remain unchanged in order to inform the Canadian Government accordingly. Instructions are also requested on that part of the trip after leaving Port Huron whether the President wishes to proceed to Winnipeg and from there south to the Peace Gateway on the North Dakota border. States that development is not completed and the Peace Arch not yet constructed, although he has no doubt that the local authorities would be very glad to make suitable arrangements for his (the President's) visit.

Wrote to Mr. Early seeking permission to use newsreel material of the President and Lord Tweedsmuir (Governor General of Canada) taken on the occasion of the opening of the Peace Bridge. Explained that the Warwick and Legler Advertising Agency is announcing its advertising campaign for Seagram Distillers Corporation at Miami next week, and since the campaign is founded on 127 years of amicable relations between this country and Canada, the Seagram people are anxious to show on the screen, at the time of the announcement to their own executives of this campaign, the friendliness between this country and Canada as typified by the President and Lord Tweedsmuir at the opening of the Peace Bridge. Said he is advised that the whole campaign is in the high key of the Seagram institutional advertising of the past year which stressed temperance in drinking, and which received very favorable comment from all quarters, and he can assure Mr. Early that the titles of the picture he proposes to make will contain no mention of Seagram whiskey, and also that the picture will not be shown to the public but only to a maximum of four meetings of executives of the Seagram Sales Department. Submitted references, and repeated that the manner in which it is proposed to use this material in no way violates either good taste or the ethics that are involved. Asked telegraphic reply. --- Mr. Early wired permission to Mr. Reed, Feb. 2, 1939, mentioning provisions for use of film.

Wrote to the President saying that Mr. H. O. McCurry, the Director of the National Gallery of Canada in Ottawa who has arranged with them for the exhibition of our Forty-Eight State Competition with which you are familiar, has written to him to ask if it would be agreeable for them to invite some important Government Official to come to Canada on Dec. 1 when the exhibition will be opened in Ottawa. Whoever is the representative would, Mr. Bruce understands, be the guest of Lord Tweedsmuir. Mr. Bruce said he spoke on Sunday to Mr. Carmody, Administrator, Federal Works Agency, about the matter and he suggested that he write the President as he (Mr. Carmody) thought it might be possible that it would suit the President's engagements to visit Canada as Lord Tweedsmuir's guest when the exhibition is opened. Asked the President to let him know if he shall follow this up. --- The President wrote to Mr. Bruce, Sept. 12, 1939 saying that the events of the past 10 days make it impossible for him to go to the Art Exhibition in Ottawa on December first, but he thinks it would be excellent to have an American representative. The President said that Mr. Bruce is the one who ought to go but if he cannot, to please suggest someone else.
