My dear Adolf:-

Jim Farley has given me your message and I do hope to see you in person later on this year. You certainly have had a hard time and I hope you are feeling better.

My best wishes to you,

Always sincerely,

Adolf Bremer, Esq., #

My dear Mr. President:

In writing me recently about another matter

Adolf Bremer of St. Paul had this to say:

"Our mutual friend, President Roosevelt, is as strong as ever in Minnesota. Give him my love. I have been sick for a couple of years and have had quite a few heart attacks and coronary thrombosis."

Thought you would be interested in this little message from a close friend and admirer of yours.

Sincerely yours,

CHAIRMAN

My dear Adolph:-

And so you will be seventy on Monday. This is just to tell you that I am thinking of you and hoping that your birthday finds you well and happy and that long years of health and the enjoyment of every blessing will be yours in the years that lie ahead.

Always sincerely,

Hon. Adolph Bremer, #

The President

The White House

It is my sad duty to inform you that our mutual friend Adolph Bremer passed away last evening in Seattle, Washington. His body is being returned for burial at his home in St Paul if you should want to send a message of condolence to his brother Otto Bremer, it should be addressed to him at Miller Hospital, St Paul, where he has been confined for the past two months following an accident resulting in a leg fracture and shoulder injury.
