You will remember that we had a Bill on this a year ago and the President then considered it as pre-mature. Activities have increased some 300 per cent since last year. Hopkins, Hon. Harry L.
Dec. 7, 1937.

The President referred for draft reply a letter from Representative Millard Caldwell, dated Dec. 4, who writes the President enclosing a letter to him from Judge L. L. Fabisinski, of the First Judicial Circuit, Pensacola, Fla., suggesting that all money proposed to be expended for farm relief and unemployment relief be combined and that instead of a farm program embodying the ever-normal granary idea, with limitation upon the amount of crops to be raised, all of the combined fund be used to purchase surplus commodities, for the purpose of distributing them solely for the benefit of the unemployed and needy. On Dec. 27, Sec. Wallace replied, submitting draft, which the President sent Rep. Caldwell on Dec. 28, saying this suggestion was widely discussed and considered during the early days of this administration. Says the WPA in a limited way has financed and organized some relatively simple processing establishments. Says except as people on relief may voluntarily establish processing facilities, this type of program under present circumstances is not believed to be desirable.

General Watson referred for draft of a reply, a letter from Rep. Millard Caldwell, Sept. 25, to the President stating that Northwest Florida, the extreme southwest Georgia and extreme southeast Alabama have sustained 75% destruction of both money and feed crops as result of most abnormal rainfall, without help and believes it would be comparatively easy for existing agencies to help alleviate too much distress. Asks that study be made of this problem. -- Act. Sec. Brown replied Oct. 18, supplying draft. -- On Oct. 21, the President wrote Rep. Caldwell re adverse crop conditions in Florida, Georgia and Alabama with particular reference to need for livestock feed. Says Sec. Wallace informs that Farm Security Adm. is in position to furnish emergency assistance. Says every effort is being made to meet these acute emergency conditions and, at the same time, to plan next year's needs which, of course, will be somewhat greater than was anticipated in the areas now affected by drought and floods. Says the Fed. Surplus Commodities Corp. was advised by the Florida State Welfare Board in August that an emergency existed and plans were made to assist.

Sent to Gen. Watson a copy of a letter written to the President by Mr. W. H. Nobles, President, Citizens State Bank, Marianna, Florida, July 7, 1939, in the interest of a bill (S.1810) to relieve the Citizens State Bank of Marianna, Florida, of a liability to the United States in the sum of $692.09 on five Government checks on which the names of the payees were endorsed without authority (by one Sam Rountree, who was County Agent for Jackson County, Florida, in 1930 and 1931, and was also handling loans to farmers for the United States Seed Loan Dept., and was manager of the Jackson County Farmers Cooperative Association). Mr. Nobles said that the 74th Congress passed H.R. bill 7419 but it was pocket vetoed. Congressman Caldwell said he would like the President to have the legislation studied so that he may advise the Committee on Claims that the bill, if passed by the Congress, will not meet with disfavor at the White House. -- (Mr. Nobles' original letter was referred to the Sec. of the Treasury for acknowledgment, July 10, 1939.) --- The President wrote to Mr. Nobles, August 24, 1939 referring to the Attorney General's opinion and explaining why he is unable to grant the request that he approve passage of the above-mentioned bill. The President expressed regret that the bank was caused this loss by the fraud and duplicity of a Government employee. --- (The President's reply is as per draft supplied by Director Smith, Bu. of the Budget, Aug. 18 in response to Gen. Watson's memo of July 17; Mr. Smith forwarded copy of the Attorney General's letter of Aug. 4 and report.) --- Gen.
