Dear Walter:

In the haste of his preparations to leave an hour later to spend the weekend at Hyde Park the President finds himself unable to acknowledge personally your letter of February eighteenth. He has asked me, however, to assure you of his appreciation of everything you say and particularly of your pledge of loyal support. The President wants you to know he is thinking of you and hopes that you are making rapid progress toward complete recovery. It is a source of great satisfaction to the President to know that he can rely upon you to help should need for your services arise.

Very sincerely yours,

My dear Mr. President:

I have had two telephone conversations with our good friend Charlie Michelson yesterday and today in reference to the Good Neighbor League. Personally, I think you are doing a great job and what you have done in increasing the efficiency and size of the military and naval departments could not be improved upon under the circumstances. I have no sympathy for the minority groups in times like these or even for party lines. I think the whole population should forget all such matters and back up our Commander-in-Chief, yourself, in whatever program you are leading. However, be assured that as soon as I get well enough to put some punch in my undertakings I will be glad to do whatever you may call upon me to do.

I hope you are in good health and will continue so.

Very respectfully,

Walter A. Jones

My dear Mr. President:

I do hope by now you are feeling better as I have read in the papers that you have not been very well. To me you have been batting 1000% plus and I do not want you to get sick. I wish there was something I could do to help you. If there is, all you have to do is blow the whistle for Walter Jones.

You helped me start the Turnpike. Without your boost it would have never been done and I am so glad to write you that it is turning out to be a great financial success. I hope some day I can talk to you about it.

With sincerest regards and best wishes,
I am

My dear Walter:

The President was awfully pleased to have your letter of the sixteenth and has asked me to tell you of his real appreciation of your thought in writing. He would write you himself if it were not for the fact that his correspondence has piled up considerably during the past several weeks.

He sends his best wishes to you.

Sincerely yours,

My dear Walter:

This is the first opportunity I have had to acknowledge your letter of November twenty-seventh. I appreciate your generous offer to help Governor Lehman and, knowing how sincere your interest is in the Good Neighbor policy, will, of course, bear it in mind.

You probably realize that these days I find little opportunity to make any appointments other than those so directly concerning the war effort that they simply are inescapable. However, I hope that some time in the not too distant future I shall have an opportunity to see you.

Very sincerely yours,

The President

My dear Mr. President:

I want to extend my congratulations to you for the selection of Governor Lehman to do the great job of aiding the rehabilitation of our oppressed Allies when the victory is ours.

The accomplishment of the things you have in mind in this respect will be very far-reaching in the end. Your plans in this connection are truly Divinely inspired and comprise the genuine idea of the Good Neighbor policy about which you and I have talked many times. Sometime when you can spare a few minutes I would like to talk with you on this subject.

This is a part of the war effort that should inspire our citizenship to forget politics and be the type of American which you typify.

It would be a great privilege to help Governor Lehman if the opportunity affords in this country.

With kindest regards and best wishes for your continued health, I am

Very sincerely,

Walter A. Jones
