Re: ARN, Fred

Dear Sir:

Mr. Fred Arn, a patient at this hospital has asked our assistance in securing information about the war record and the burial place of his brother, George Arn, who was killed in France during his World War service.

George Arn enlisted from Norwood, Ohio about June or July of 1917. Our patient does not know the exact date or place where his brother was killed but believes that it was in the battle of Argonne Forest. Mr. Arn's parents had full information concerning these things but they are now dead and the record has been lost. It is for this reason that we have been requested to secure this information

If it is possible with the above information to locate George Arn's record we would appreciate very much having as many details as possible concerning his service and his burial place.

Yours very truly

(Miss) Gladys C. Mead,
Assistant Field Director,
