Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your reply to office letter of August 8th in which you were requested to furnish information relative to your brother, the late Private first class Minor Barnard.

It appears from the information submitted that you may be eligible under the loco parentis clause of the Act of Congress of March 2, 1929, as amended May 15, 1930, to make a pilgrimage to the grave of your brother. However, before a final decision can be made and in order to satisfy the legal requirements, it will be necessary for you to furnish the affidavits of at least two persons not related to you as proof of your relationship in loco parentis. It is therefore requested that you have the enclosed form completed and returned to this office at the earliest practicable date. Under paragraphs 1 (c) and 1 (d) sufficient information should be included to permit an intelligible decision as to eligibility.

It is noted that your father died in April 1919, and it is requested you advise whether or not he contributed to the support of his son during the time you claim to have stood in loco parentis.

The enclosed self-addressed envelope which requires no postage is for your convenience in replying.

Barnard, Minor - 1/c Pvt. #273471
Home: Oshkosh, Wis.

Pvt. Minor Barnard was killed just outside the city of Fismes, France, on Aug. 7, 1918, by a high explosive shell. He was on the road way just outside of the village and his body remained there for some time, and I believe that he was buried just outside of the village with the other troops that had fallen in the days fighting.
