1. With reference to the case of BARNES, #2228549, Arch, Pvt., Co.K, 59th Inf., this man is now reported as having died 8-1-18, of wounds received in action, developing pneumonia, in C.C.#285. ✓

2. It appears from the records here that this death was erroneously reported "wounded in action, degree undetermined" in C.C.#209, as the master card and all papers in connection with the above case show this man to have died of pneumonia.

RE: Barnes, Arch #2222549

Capt Barnes

Memorandum from Sgt Hoeffcker of Sept. 29, 1918 states that status should be "wounded in action, degree undetermined."; and on his memorandum dated October 30, 1918 he states that case was reported as dead on CC # 209. Investigation of our carbon copy of the "Deaths" section of CC 209 fails to show this man as listed.

Have Sgt Hoeffcker look into matter and ascertain if this man was really reported on CC 209; or if the present status is, as stated in his memorandum of September 29, 1918, "wounded in action".

At the present time, we have a BLUE Registration Card showing this man to be buried in A.E.F. Cty at Chateau Montanglaust, near Coulommiers, (S.etM.) -- such being recorded from GLB signed "Capt. J. A. Matson, M.R.C. Adj.".
