Dear Mrs. Bartelt:-

I am pleased to have your letter of July 18th expressing appreciation for the pilgrimage you recently made to the cemeteries of Europe in honor of your son, the late John Frederick Bartelt, Ship's Cook second class, U.S.N.R.F.

It is indeed gratifying to know that your trip was entirely satisfactory and that you were accorded such courteous and efficient service by those in charge of the pilgrimage. The Quartermaster Corps is proud of the honor bestowed upon it by being charged with the conduct of the trips, and has expended every effort that those making the journey might have a comfortable and pleasant pilgrimage. I feel, however, that the task has been materially lightened by the wonderful spirit of cooperation and consideration shown by the pilgrims.

Very truly yours,

J. L. DeWITT,
Major General,
The Quartermaster General.

Dear Madam:

There are enclosed herewith two tags and four identification pasters which have been prepared for the purpose of protecting your baggage while in transit, and to insure its safe arrival at the hotel where you are to stop in New York City. Please attach the tags to the handle of each piece of your baggage and place a paster on each end of each piece of your baggage before leaving your home.

Upon your arrival in New York City, you will be met at the railroad station by an Army Officer who will be in uniform. During your sojourn in New York before sailing for Europe, and upon your return from Europe, you will stop at the Hotel Pennsylvania, 33rd Street and 7th Avenue, New York City.

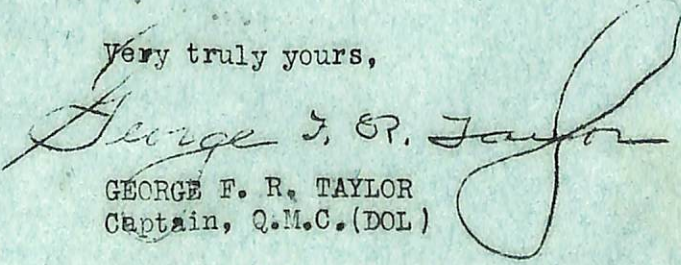

All mail intended to reach you between May 25th, 1932, the day you sail from the United States, and June 18th, 1932, the day you leave Europe, should be addressed to you in care of American Pilgrimage, 146 Avenue des Champs Elysees, Paris, France; for example:

Dear Madam:

per acc. card

In the early part of the year 1932, you will be forwarded a formal invitation to make a pilgrimage to Europe in honor of your son, the late John Frederick Bartelt, Ship's Cook, second class.

The records show that your son served on the "Wabash", and that he was buried at sea, October 17, 1918.

The names of deceased veterans of the American forces whose remains were buried at sea during the World War will be inscribed in memorial chapels now under construction in the Brookwood and Suresnes American Cemeteries in Europe, and while the names will not be inscribed when you make the pilgrimage in 1932, the itinerary prepared for your pilgrimage will include visits to both cemeteries. D

This information is brought to your attention at this time in order that when you make the pilgrimage to the cemeteries of Europe in honor of your son, you will realize that no grave can be shown you as that of your son.

For The Quartermaster General.

Very truly yours,

A. D. HUGHES,

Dear Mrs. Bartelt:-

I am pleased to have your letter of July 15th expressing appreciation for the pilgrimage you recently made to the cemeteries of Europe in honor of your son, the late John Frederick Bartelt, Ship's Cook second class, U.S.N.R.F.

It is indeed gratifying to know that your trip was entirely satisfactory and that you were accorded such courteous and efficient service by those in charge of the pilgrimage. The Quartermaster Corps is proud of the honor bestowed upon it by being charged with the conduct of the trips, and has expended every effort that those making the journey might have a comfortable and pleasant pilgrimage. I feel, however, that the task has been materially lightened by the wonderful spirit of cooperation and consideration shown by the pilgrims.

Very truly yours,

Dear Madam:

In the early part of the year 1932, you will be forwarded a formal invitation to make a pilgrimage to Europe in honor of your son, the late John Frederick Bartelt, Ship's Cook, second class.

The records show that your son served on the "Wabash", and that he was buried at sea, October 17, 1918.

The names of deceased veterans of the American forces whose remains were buried at sea during the World War will be inscribed in memorial chapels now under construction in the Brookwood and Suresnes American Cemeteries in Europe, and while the names will not be inscribed when you make the pilgrimage in 1932, the itinerary prepared for your pilgrimage will include visits to both cemeteries.

This information is brought to your attention at this time in order that when you make the pilgrimage to the cemeteries of Europe in honor of your son, you will realize that no grave can be shown you as that of your son.

For The Quartermaster General.

Very truly yours,

A. D. HUGHES,
