Dear Mrs. Bartoli:

I have the letter of June 10th which you and the other mothers and widows who recently made a pilgrimage to the cemeteries of Europe were so kind as to send me in appreciation of the courteous care and attention you received.

I am delighted to know that you were pleased with the arrangements made for your comfort and welfare and that the officer assigned to your group rendered such satisfactory and commendable service. I am sure, however, that his task was materially lightened by the wonderful spirit of cooperation and consideration shown by the mothers and widows making the journey.

The Quartermaster Corps is proud of the honor bestowed upon it by being charged with the conduct of these pilgrimages and expended every effort that those making the journey might have a comfortable and pleasant trip.

With sincere appreciation of the sentiments you expressed, I am,

Sincerely yours,
