The only provision of the law under which anyone other than the mother or widow could be considered for the privilege of making a pilgrimage is contained in section 4(a) of the Act of March 2, 1920, which was amended May 15, 1930, to read in part as follows: "—or any woman who stood in loco parentis to the deceased member of the military or naval forces for a period of not less than five years at any time prior to the soldier, sailor, or marine becoming eighteen years of age".

In order to satisfy the legal requirements, it will be necessary for you to furnish as proof of the relationship, in loco parentis, the affidavits of at least two persons not related to you.

In the event you believe yourself eligible, under this provision of the law, to make the pilgrimage, it is requested that the enclosed forms be completed and returned to this office in order that your eligibility under the Act may be determined. Under paragraphs 1 (c) and 1 (d), sufficient information should be included to permit an intelligible decision as to eligibility.

Oct. 9, 1918, about 3:30 AM near Chateau-Thierry I was in one hole and Bagley and another man were in a hole about 4 or 5 feet away. A shell hit closeby and killed both men in the other hole. They must have been killed instantly because there was no sound and both were dead when I looked in the hole 10 minutes later. We were relieved at that time and I know nothing of his burial.

The Adjutant General,
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

I respectfully request that the remains of my brother, James C. Begley, 3,133,842, Private, Co. B, 110 Inf., be interred at Bo'ness, Scotland, by the side of the grave of his mother and mine. My brother purchased the burial lot there, and it was his wish to be interred there when he died.

The cost would be less than bringing the body here. I sincerely hope that the above request may be complied with.

Will you kindly advise me whether the request may be granted.

My oldest sister, Mrs. Mary Peebles, of Bo'ness, Scotland, at 22 Kinniel Street, would receive the remains.

If it is not possible to send the remains to Scotland, as desired by my said deceased brother, then I respectfully request that the body be sent to Cle Elum, Kittitas County, Washington, in which case I would receive the remains.

Very respectfully,

Mrs Janet Binnie

Referring to your letter of recent date relative to the final disposition of the remains of your brother, James C. Begley, I beg leave to advise that it has not been definitely decided to ship bodies to any other country than the United States, however, the card that you returned to this office has been placed on file for reference when the work of the transfer is begun.

It is desired to express to you the deep sympathy of the Department on account of the great loss sustained in the death of your brother.

Very respectfully,

The Adjutant General
