Dear Sir:

With further reference to the above matter and your memorandum of November 8, will state that the request for details of the death of Frank Bellino were wanted by the brother Savino Bellino as a matter of general information. He has not received any information other than that his brother was killed overseas, and if it is possible he would appreciate some detailed information as to where he died and what caused his death, i. e. whether it was in battle or as a result of sickness.

Trusting that the above explanation is sufficient, and that his brother whose address is 531 Castro Street, Oakland, California, may receive this information, I am

Yours sincerely,
