I am advised, through a letter which you sent me on Feb. 14, 1921, that Hyman Blumberg, father of the late Harris Blumberg, Serial Number 11017, Private, Med. Det. 28th. inf. has requested that the body of the deceased soldier be returned to the United States and shipped to him at New Haven, Conn. I will gladly consent to the request providing that Hyman Blumberg lets me know through you or your office, at just what cemetery the body will be interred at New Haven, for the sake of my boy. I was going to have the body lie in France, just as our late Colonel Roosevelt had quoted "Let a man lie where he fell". But for the sake of my seven year old boy, I will consent to the body being sent to Hyman Blumberg, providing I know where it will be interred.

Will you kindly let me know where
Mr. Blumberg will have the body interred?

Trusting to hear from you again, I remain

Yours Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

In reply to yours of the 23d addressed Mr. Hyman Blumberg, of 60 Pierpont Street, New Haven, Connecticut, would say that Mr. Blumberg has handed me your letter for attention.

I have advised him that it would not be at all wise to remove the body of his son from its present resting place in France to the United States; that the grave will always be cared for where his son now lies buried; that it would be inexpedient to bring the remains here after a lapse of nearly three years.

Mr. Blumberg has therefore, asked me to request your department to cancel his previous request for the return of the remains to the United States; that he now wishes it definitely settled that his son shall remain as at present, where his grave is under the protection of the United States Government and marked with the star of Zion.

Yours very truly,

DJM:O
