Dear Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your communication of recent date which indicates that you stood in loco parentis to the late Adam Bald.

In order to satisfy the legal requirements, it will be necessary for you to furnish as proof of the relationship, in loco parentis, the affidavits of at least two persons not related to you.

In the event you believe yourself eligible, under the provisions of section 4 (a) of the Act of March 2, 1929, as amended May 16, 1930, to make the pilgrimage, it is requested that the enclosed forms be completed and returned to this office in order that your eligibility may be determined. Under paragraphs 1 (c) and 1 (d), sufficient information should be included to permit an intelligible decision as to eligibility.

For The Quartermaster General.

Very truly yours,

Dear Madam:

The Quartermaster General desires you to be informed that the permanent grave of 1st Sergeant, Adam Bold, Company B, 141st Infantry, is Grave 30, Row 39, Block H, Meuse-Argonne American Cemetery, Romagne-sous-Montfaucon (Meuse), France.

This is one of the permanent American military cemeteries to be maintained by this Government in Europe. Each grave will be marked by a headstone of white marble, of suitable design, with name, rank, division, organization, date of soldier's death and State from which he came. Headstones will be placed at all graves in connection with the improvement work now in progress, as soon as possible and without waiting for special action or request on the part of relatives.

You are assured in effecting removal of the remains, the utmost care and reverence were exercised and more than willingly accorded by those who performed this sacred duty. The grave of the deceased will be perpetually maintained by this Government in a manner befitting the last resting place of our heroes.

Very truly yours,

1. In reply to your inquiry we beg to say that the records of the Graves Registration Service contain the following information as to grave location:

Case of: 1st Sgt. Adam Bold,
Co. B, 141st Infantry.

Place of burial:

Reburied - Argonne American Cemetery, Romagne-
sous-Montfaucon, Department of Meuse, Grave 56, Section 91, Plot 2.

2. The grave has been registered and suitably marked for present purposes, pending the adoption of a more permanent monument by the National Fine Arts Commission, which now has the matter under consideration.

3. While it is a sad duty on our part to convey information concerning the burial of men who were our valient comrades, it is a satisfaction to answer the queries of those who suffer so grievously by the casualties of War.

By authority of the Quartermaster General:

CHARLES C. PIERCE,
Colonel, Q. M. Corps,
Chief, Graves Registration Service.

Registrar of Graves -

Dear Sirs.

Can you tell me where the burial place of a friend of mine is. Am making this inquire for his mother.
The party referred to is First Sergeant Adam Bold of Co B.
141st Inf., 36th Division.
Was killed in action Oct 5-1918. He and myself were in the same shell hole when he was killed. I was wounded.
Could never get any information after I left the Hospital at Chalons - France. This occurred in the Meuse Argonne offensive.
If it is possible would like to obtain a photograph of his grave for his folks - Any information you can give in this respect will be highly appreciated by his mother as well as myself.

I beg to remain

Respectfully yours

Stanley George -
