Dear Mrs. Burleigh:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of July 27th in which you express appreciation for the pilgrimage you made to the grave of your husband during the summer of 1932.

It is indeed gratifying to know that your trip was entirely satisfactory, and that the officers of the Army and other personnel rendered such courteous and efficient service. The Quartermaster Corps is proud of the honor bestowed upon it by being charged with the conduct of these pilgrimages, and has expended every effort that those making the journey might have a comfortable and pleasant trip. I feel, however, that the task has been materially lightened by the wonderful spirit of cooperation and consideration shown by the pilgrims.

The last group of mothers and widows making the pilgrimage sailed July 26, 1933 on the President Roosevelt.

With sincere appreciation of the sentiments expressed in your letter, I am

Very truly yours,

J. L. DeWITT,

Dear Mrs. Burleigh:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of July 27th in which you express appreciation for the pilgrimage you made to the grave of your husband during the summer of 1932.

It is indeed gratifying to know that your trip was entirely satisfactory, and that the officers of the Army and other personnel rendered such courteous and efficient service. The Quartermaster Corps is proud of the honor bestowed upon it by being charged with the conduct of these pilgrimages, and has expended every effort that those making the journey might have a comfortable and pleasant trip. I feel, however, that the task has been materially lightened by the wonderful spirit of cooperation and consideration shown by the pilgrims.

The last group of mothers and widows making the pilgrimage sailed July 26, 1933 on the President Roosevelt.

With sincere appreciation of the sentiments expressed in your letter, I am

Very truly yours,

J. L. DeWITT,
Major General,

Dear Madam:

There are enclosed herewith two tags and four identification pasters which have been prepared for the purpose of protecting your baggage while in transit, and to insure its safe arrival at the hotel where you are to stop in New York City. Please attach the tags to the handle of each piece of your baggage and place a paster on each end of each piece of your baggage before leaving your home.

Upon your arrival in New York City, you will be met at the railroad station by an Army Officer who will be in uniform. During your sojourn in New York before sailing for Europe, and upon your return from Europe, you will stop at the Hotel McAlpin, Broadway and 34th Street, New York City.

All mail intended to reach you between August 17th, 1932, the day you sail from the United States, and September 10th, 1932, the day you leave Europe, should be addressed to you in care of American Pilgrimage, 146 Avenue des Champs Elysees, Paris, France; for example:

Mrs. Mary Smith

In making reservations for your journey home from New York City, it is necessary for this office to furnish the railroads with the exact time and date of your departure. The party you are to travel with will be disbanded in New York City on the day following your return from Europe and all arrangements for your accommodations will be made with the railroads by this office accordingly. Upon your return from Europe, it will therefore be necessary for you to remain in the hotel over night as a guest of the United States Government.

There is also enclosed herewith information relative to the cemeteries in Europe.
