Dear Madam:

The Act of Congress of March 2, 1929, as amended May 15, 1930, authorizes pilgrimages to the cemeteries Of Europe during the years 1930, 1931, 1932 and 1933 for the mothers and widows of deceased members of the American forces who were lost or buried at sea or whose remains are interred in Europe.

Your attention is particularly invited to the fact that this is the last opportunity you will have to make the pilgrimage under the provisions of the above mentioned Act. Unless you take advantage of this LAST chance to make a trip in 1933 you will receive no benefit from the Act. There is no provision of law which will permit the Government to make a money allowance to any mother or widow who does not choose to make the pilgrimage.

IT IS REQUESTED THAT YOU GIVE THE MATTER YOUR MOST CAREFUL CONSIDERATION BEFORE REACHING A DECISION, BEARING IN MIND THAT THIS IS THE LAST OPPORTUNITY YOU WILL HAVE TO MAKE THE TRIP AT GOVERNMENT EXPENSE.

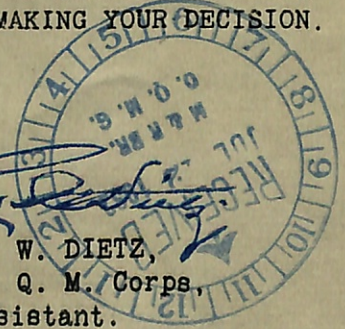

In order to assure proper and satisfactory accommodations for the mothers and widows making the journey in 1933, reservations for steamship transportation must be made by this office several months in advance. It is requested that you answer the questions below by writing "Yes" or "No" or "Undecided" in the blank space following the question. When you have answered the question, sign your name and return this sheet in the enclosed addressed envelope which requires no postage. PLEASE DO NOT DELAY, as it is essential that the information be in this office promptly.

This letter is being sent to all eligible mothers and widows who did not make the pilgrimage during the years 1930, 1931 or 1932. There is enclosed a circular of information WHICH YOU SHOULD READ VERY CAREFULLY BEFORE MAKING YOUR DECISION.

Dear Sir —

This is to notify you that Mrs. Mary G. Cadwell is totally and definitely unable to take advantage of the magnanimous offer of the Government to visit the grave of her son Sergeant Clifford G. Cadwell of 35th Infantry. She has been an invalid for the past half-dozen years, & after a recent illness is not permitted to walk without help, in safety to herself. It is a grief to her that she cannot go, or that in place of herself some member of her family could visit for her what circumstances forbid for herself. It seems so unfair that such discrimination should be made. Please consider this as final.

Very sincerely

Dear Madam:

Reference is made to correspondence forwarded you from this office relative to a pilgrimage to the grave of your son, the late Sergeant Clifford H. Cadwell. In reply to a questionnaire you advised that you did not desire to make a pilgrimage during the summer of 1932.

It is noted you previously stated that you were an invalid, and in this connection you are advised that in the event you are able to make the journey, personnel to care for your comfort and needs will be provided, and doctors and nurses will be available. During the past two years a number of mothers in poor health and of advanced age made the pilgrimage and appear to have benefited by the sea air and the excellent care they received.

If you should later decide to visit your son's grave next summer, it is requested that you so notify this office, so the necessary arrangements may be made to accommodate you.

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of March 12, inquiring as to whether or not a niece of Mrs. Mary L. Cadwell would be allowed to make the pilgrimage in place of the mother.

In this connection you are advised the Act of March 2, 1929, authorizing the pilgrimages provides only for the mothers and widows of deceased members of the American forces to make this pilgrimage at the expense of the Government. Dear Sir —

Since sending in her then declination to the Government's invitation to the Gold Star Mothers' journey to the battlefields of France, she our Aunt, Mrs. Mary L. Cadwell of the above address — is feeling so much better that being totally unable to go herself, wishes now to ask if one of the two nieces, with whom she has made her home, since her only son before going overseas - placed her - is eligible to go in her stead.

She wishes earnestly that some one (of these nieces) are nearest to her) might go to visit the place of her son to which she is unable to go both because of age (she is over 80) and a broken hip. She has not been outside the house for the past - five or six years. Would it be possible in this case, to satisfy a desire that all mothers have had where some are buried so far away, to see for herself through the eyes of some one near and sympathetic with her loss, what unfortunate conditions prevent? She is surely entitled to this in some way.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of March 12, inquiring as to whether or not a niece of Mrs. Mary L. Cadwell would be allowed to make the pilgrimage in place of the mother.

In this connection you are advised the Act of March 2, 1929, authorizing the pilgrimages provides only for the mothers and widows of deceased members of the American forces to make this pilgrimage at the expense of the Government. No provision is made for the transfer of the privilege in the event a mother or widow is unable to make the journey.

For The Quartermaster General.

Very truly yours,

A. D. HUGHES,
Captain, Q. M. Corps,
Assistant.
