Dear Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of September 30, 1929 with further reference to the Pilgrimage of the Gold Star Mothers and Widows to Europe.

The request for information as to the date of your marriage to the present Mrs. Campbell was made in order to discover whether or not she might be eligible under the provisions of the Act of March 2, 1929 to make the pilgrimage therein provided for.

From the information furnished by you, it is regretted to advise that, inasmuch as you were not married to the present Mrs. Campbell until after the date of the death of your son, she was not his step-mother at the time of his entry into the service, and therefore is not entitled, under the law, to make this pilgrimage.

In connection with your remark that you are ready to go across the water when called, your attention is invited to our letter of September 13th in which it was regretted to advise you that you were not eligible, under the law, to make this pilgrimage.

For The Quartermaster General.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of July 10, 1929, and the delay in reply is due to the great number of inquiries relative to the pilgrimage of the Gold Star Mothers and Widows to Europe.

It is believed that you have not clearly understood the Act of March 2, 1929, authorizing the above pilgrimage, and your attention is called to Section 2 (a) of the Act which states that invitations for a pilgrimage shall be extended the mothers and widows for whom such pilgrimages are authorized. You will also note that there is no provision in the Act, which provides for any other member of the family than the mother or widow to make the pilgrimage. It is, therefore, regretted to have to advise that you are not eligible under the law to make this pilgrimage.

In order that the records of this office may be completed, it will be appreciated if you will advise the date of your marriage to the late soldier's stepmother.
