Kolaczowo, August 22, 1919.

In the first words of my letter let Jesus Christ be praised.

I beg of you to answer me but your father told Yasa that you had written to your father and had inquired where I was and informed him that my son Jan Cielaskiewicz is no longer alive but had been killed in the war in the American army in France in August July 1918. I am old and cannot work. I am 73 years old and I ask you to try to help me. I have nothing else to write. Greetings.

Dear Friend:

If you have already sent a photograph to us please ignore this letter, or hand it to a relative of a soldier who lost his life overseas. WE ARE WRITING THIS LETTER TO THOSE WHO HAVE SENT IN PHOTOGRAPHS OR SUBSCRIPTIONS AS WELL AS THOSE WHO HAVE NOT, in order to inform them of the progress of our work.

SOLDIERS OF THE GREAT WAR will consist of over one thousand pages of photographs, and of four hundred pages of printed matter. It will be in two volumes of seven hundred pages each. The paper, engraving, printing and binding will be of the best materials, and the completed work will be something of which the relatives will be proud.

If the photograph of your relative has not already been sent us and you wish it included in this great work it must be sent us at once. The photo should be in the mail by September 25th, as we intend to go to press with the work October 1st, and in a short time thereafter we will be ready to deliver the complete set.

Can you think of a more appropriate tribute to the memory of our deceased soldiers than a work of this nature? Over 20,000 of their photographs will be included in SOLDIERS OF THE GREAT WAR. The name, rank and address will be included of each soldier whose photograph is not available. This set will truly be a complete individual history of the Great War.

A reduction in price will be made to the relatives and friends who send in photographs.

As stated in our former letters you obligate yourself in no way by sending in the photograph. It will be carefully preserved and returned to you whether you wish to buy a set of the books or not. However, any amount you send will be appreciated and if one dollar, or more, will be credited on the purchase price of the set.

We feel sure that if you should fail to send in the photograph you would regret the oversight when you saw the completed set. It is to avoid this condition that this letter is being sent you. This great set will be in the public libraries and in thousands of homes throughout the country.

The photograph must be mailed before September 25th, send the best one you have as we have the facilities for handling all kinds from the small kodak to the largest photograph.

Yours very truly,
