Dear Sir. The late ~~John~~ Albert Bonnell, always gave me to understand that he had no relations whatever. ~~He~~ received no correspondence during the four years I knew him + during that time he always looked upon my mother as his.

He always said he never wished to return to the States unless I accompanied him as his wife. But as that is now impossible, that is the reason why I do not want his body removed from where it lies, which is the U.S. Military Cemetery, Winchester, England. I think you will agree with me, that I am acting in accordance with his wishes.

Yours Truly,

A. Le Blond.

'June 21, 1921. Answering your letter in reference to remains of late Pvt. Fitzherbert Connell, am sorry to say am not in position to pay for burial expenses or the upkeep of his grave. I was given to understand by the deceased before death, by word of mouth and also in black and white, that he had willed all money to me. After filling in certain papers and having same properly signed and sealed, I was informed by the War Department that I was not entitled to it, not being his wife. Therefore, let those who benefit by his will take on all responsibilities of burial expenses, etc.'

In view of the foregoing, it is requested that this Service be advised of the next of kin of said deceased. If deceased is not survived by any relatives, instructions are requested."
