Your communication of the 16th of Feb. 1931 relative to parents of my above named brother. We were at the time of the war an orphaned family, under my charge, and I was therefore, mother and all to them. As then.

My father died in 1907 and my mother in 1910. There were seven members of our family, three of the boys including Andrew who were in the service. I am the oldest girl.

I trust that this establishes the information you desire.
