My dear Col. Gibson:

Just after returning from the pilgrimage a lady called on me at my headquarters in New York and requested me to write to the War Department if Mrs. Mary Conway, 64 West 192nd St. N.Y.C. whose son[?] served with the 69th Regiment and is buried overseas, would not be eligible for this pilgrimage. As explained to me Mrs. Mary Conway, is a foster mother to this boy and has been such since he was five years old. Believing that she would come under the heading of loco-parentis, we would like to have full information from the War Department, as she is very anxious to visit the grave of the boy whom she cared so much for.

Will you kindly give this your immediate attention.
