The Quartermaster General

Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir:

In answer to your letter of the eleventh which was in regard to my son, Private Clarence H. Cook, Company K, 309th Infantry who has been missing nearly three years I am asking for some information concerning him. Your letter states that his grave has been located. Could you kindly tell me if it is this grave that has been found or is it his body which has been found just recently and buried at this stated place? Is there any possible way in which I could obtain any information concerning him and his death? For nearly three years I have been constantly in suspense and have had to be content to know that he was missing. Now that his grave has been located I should like at least some little evidence that it is his and especially before considering the returning of his body.

He had a wrist watch on his person and a soldiers belt also other things of less importance which I would give anything to obtain for a keep sake.

Any information concerning him will be most greatly appreciated.

Very sincerely yours,

Herman J. Cook
