Dear Miss Talley,

I ordered

The picture of President Roosevelt yesterday from Harris & Ewing, and am sending it to you -

It is to be put with the one Mrs. Roosevelt gave the note with the greatest admiration for the people the sea & collection - of "Great Britain"

The President would write

946 for Hawks from those birds a line from his "alta Speech" or any thing he would prefer.

Pres. Woodrow Wilson, wrote
The passage he liked best from The League of Nations - and I have all the signatures of Versailles - and Munich
all the Presidents including Theodore Roosevelt and the Premiers of England. Mr.
Churchill gave me his signed picture (This I gave to Vassar on its 75th Anniversary) and Mildred Thompson the dear friend says, "it is one of Vassar's treasures possessions." I have all the great generals - and will have another one of Mr. Churchill - I am from the collection of a National Collector - from France

My dear Mrs Tully:

Just a few lines to day
as I have been putting it off for quite some time. Yes we have been over sea for 19 months now, not too bad and with the fine weather we are now having makes the days a little pleasanter. I am still hoping our time to return home is drawing near. About the picture, I have been waiting ever since we arrived in France to receive the new Eisenhower jacket, but it seems as if we are the last to get anything new.
I will have the pictures made soon if I have to purchase a jacket.

Mother often ask about you in her letters, that she writes nightly. Would be pleased if you can find time to drop in on her sometime. I will give you the address as I am sure you have forgotten it by this time.

Mrs. Bertha H. Key

Must close now and get some rest, for the new day that is on the way. Please remember me to all in the Office.

I am,

Yours truly

The President's Office
Washington, D. C.

I am writing to ask if my husband can procure the President's signature. #
He was a page in the Senate for six years and in his autograph book he has the signatures of five presidents beginning with Woodrow Wilson. He also has the signatures of many senators and some Vice presidents.

To obtain President Roosevelt's signature would be of great value in our eyes, as we both firmly believe that he will be the only president to sign a Peace Treaty that will end all wars.

I might add that I was advised by your office to write this letter.

Dear Miss Tully, ^{April 14, 1945} W.A.

I don't suppose this is the proper time to be writing to you but as yourself and the whole nation too are truly sorry at the passing away of our president, the only one I have known as I am 11 years old, but if you will remember I wrote and asked for an autograph, I am wondering if there would be even a little piece of paper with his autograph for my Scrap Book.

My dear Miss Tully:

I want to express to you my sympathy at this time, knowing how close you were to the President and how fond you were of him personally. I knew him quite well as a boy and young man, and never have I met anyone more delightful or with greater charm.

We can never be sufficiently grateful to you for obtaining for us his photograph for the Lodge Room, and it may be of interest to you to know that your last letter to me has been framed on the back of the picture, to go down to posterity. You may also be interested to know that we plan to hold a "Memorial Communication" some time in May, when we hope to obtain the best music and speakers possible.

I would like to again impose on your kindness, and hope you will bear with me. Enclosed is an open personal letter to Mrs. Roosevelt, which I would be grateful if you would read and, if you approve, have placed with such of her mail as is sure to be brought to her personal attention.

Courage

The courage of men, is well advertised in poems, stories and books
 But there is a courage unglamorised that is often overlooked.
 It's not the courage, that grapples with Death, or saves the life for another.
 It's Home, where this courage quietly rests, Home - in the heart of a Mother.

He Is Just Away

He would not want the ones he loves
To grieve for him today;
We must not say that he is dead,
For he is just away -
Away upon a journey
To a Land that's bright and fair;
And though we all will miss him here
We know he's happy there -
And memories of him will bring
New comfort every day
As we recall - he is not dead
For he is just away!

We had a memorial Mass for him Monday morning at St. Ignace I went to Holy Communion for him.

So sympathetic with you I know you are going to miss him terribly I have never felt anyone's death as keenly, since my dear Mother's death I wrote to Mrs. Rosenet as I felt so sad for her.

Under separate cover I am sending you a box of my own make of candy which is my business, on a small scale, I do hope you will enjoy it. Again thanking you and expressing my sincere sympathy for you again. Believe me

Dear Mr. Levand:

It is indeed ages since I have written you but I have been really interested in the war sheets you have been sending me, which give such a vivid picture of your fine journalistic enterprises.

My father asked me to thank you for your kind letter to him of January 31 and to tell you of his very sincere appreciation for all that you have done to help out the Infantile Paralysis campaign.

He wishes that it were possible for him to send you right away a picture for the children at St. Francis Hospital. While he has had to adopt a firm rule against sending autographs, due to the many demands as well as to the pressure of work, he nevertheless tries to find a few moments once in a while when he can send autographs or pictures to youngsters afflicted with infantile paralysis. Miss Tully, his secretary, tells me that she now has on hand a great number of such requests and that Father is going to take care of them as soon as he gets a chance. Therefore, if I possibly can, I will get the photograph for you, but knowing children as I do, I think it would be wiser if you don't tell them anything about it, as disappointment and waiting would certainly not be appreciated by them!

We took the picture of the children looking at your picture ourselves at St. Francis Hospital here. Each of the children is a polio victim and is recovering at the hospital as the result of the work of our Sedgwick County Infantile Paralysis Chapter.

It certainly would be a fine surprise for those children if you would send an autographed picture which I might present to the hospital. St. Francis Hospital is one of our most active in the fight against infantile paralysis and has cared for hundreds of victims.

We requested the picture of Mrs. Roosevelt and the little movie star and received it by way of Wirephoto.

This request is another imposition, but I do feel obligated in this case, and unfortunately the gentleman will not be satisfied with an autographed picture of ARB!

In other words, Captain C.A. Swanson, who is head of the Ear, Nose and Throat department at the Naval Dispensary, has given a great deal of time to caring for Johnny during this long illness and the other day he asked me if he could have a recent photograph of Father autographed to him.

I of course did not promise but did say I would do my best. At any rate, I will appreciate it if you will ask Father what he thinks.

Dear Mrs. Tully:

I am fourteen years old and my hobby is collecting ~~hobby~~ autographs of great people, etc. As you know by now, I didn't like to bother you for Mr. Roosevelt's autograph at that time, because I knew that he was very busy, and that he didn't look so good. I want you to know that I have your autograph in my collection of autographs. I have a collection of autographs that amount to 265.

For several months I

Dear Miss Tully,

I collect autographs and I have those of Ex-President Hoover, Winston Churchill, and Woodrow Wilson - which my father gave me - in my collection.

Sometimes these great men write up autographs on cards in advance and I am wondering if you might have one of Mr. Roosevelts' which you could send me in the enclosed stamped envelope? I did not like to write him for his autograph when he was so busy, but I wish I could have his signature to put in my album under his picture.

Dear Mr. Hassett:

When I was with NEA one of the Acme photographers took the enclosed photograph of the President just before he left for Inauguration ceremonies in 1936. Ever since then I have meant to ask you if some time you would be good enough to have the President autograph it for me. I suppose you are beset by people who want autographs, but since I have had some personal contact with the President since 1932 I should very much appreciate having such a souvenir of these years.

Please accept my

at the loss of your dear friend, former

Your years of intimate

Several weeks ago
Miss Stone, my friend

gave a picture, that had been given

of the group who come here to see if the President would autograph it, as my husband was anxious for the picture to be autographed.

I took it out of gave it to her to give

It was the President taken the night of the successful election of them, the former

May I trouble you,

if the picture will be returned to me.

priceless.

Dear Miss Tully:

I am writing to you about a matter which is very dear to me.

I am a collector of souvenirs, mementos, autographs and autographed photographs of famous and well-known persons.

During the life-time of our late beloved President I have not been able to acquire any memento from him for my collection.

Your having been his Private Secretary for some time, I thought that maybe you might have some memento of the Great Man which you might part with. Perhaps his autograph, or any small item of his.

I am a private collector, Miss Tully, and collect these things purely for sentimental reasons.

Being in ill health, I find great enjoyment in my hobby, which helps to pass away many a lonely hour.

May I hope to hear from you soon?

Thank you.

My wife and I were great admirers of President Roosevelt and his ideals, and his passing has caused us great sorrow. Dear Mr. Early:-

Death has silenced the voice of a great man in history, and has laid the pen, that has signed many great documents which have had their part in the conduct of the war for lasting peace, and and used for the last time in this great humanitarian effort.

The writer, now eighty years of age, has had the pleasure and privilege of knowing most of the presidents commencing with President Harrison. During those years when I was editor and owner of the Marietta (O) Register, I have had letters from some of the presidents and have saved their autographs. In politics I have been on both sides. From President Harrison to date I have the autographs of every president except Coolidge and our lamented president Franklin D. Roosevelt Probably all kinds of requests are coming to you but I am hopeful that you may be able to send me one of the autographed cards, (made from a plate) with the signature of Mr. Roosevelt on it.

I am on no way an autograph collector, and the card which I am asking for will find its place in my album used for autographs of prominent men in the Government service.

I am enclosing a clipping from the Plain Dealer, which in simplicity and strength is one of the best I have seen since the Presidents death.

Trusting my request will be complied with, and with personal regards, I am

Very sincerely

My dear Miss Zingone:

Thank you for your kind letter. I have much pleasure in sending you the enclosed picture of President Roosevelt. I am sorry, however, that I do not have in my possession a card bearing his signature.

With regard to your inquiry, I have a brother who is a priest at Resurrection Church, Rye, New York.

Very sincerely yours,

GRACE G. TULLY

My dear Miss Tully:

For the past two weeks, I've been ill, in bed. (I had a very badly infected throat.) during that -time I thought, I'd arrange my book on "Personalities of W.W. II."

I did write twice for President Roosevelt's (R.I.P.) autograph; but, on both "trys" I was disappointed.

I noticed, I still left the first page which I had President Roosevelt's name and rank: "Commander in Chief" blank. I really hate to annoy you, and I ask your pardon if I am, but, I was wondering, isn't there some way, Miss Tully, that you could send me his card - or something -? A picture perhaps - You may not realize it, but it would really mean an awful lot to me. I have all the other, Generals of the Army & Admirals of the Fleet, autographs - and our late Presidents, would make my book a complete success -!

Miss Tully: may I ask a personal question of you - do you really have a brother a priest & up in Yonkers?

a seminarian, up in St. Joseph's Seminary. told me, when he saw my book - that he knew your brother, and that he would ask him, to ask you for me.

Please see, if you can help me
Miss Tully, and I'd be ever grateful to you.

Thank You.

Sincerely
Marie Ann Zingone
