Dear Mr. Billauer:

The President has asked me to thank you for your letter and your kind words of support for the new administration.

We are keenly aware of the past successes of the National Polish American-Jewish American Council in helping to improve Polish-Jewish relations, and we too look forward to a fruitful and productive relationship with the Council.

Again, thank you for your letter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Larry Lindsey". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.

Dear President Bush:

On behalf of the National Polish American-Jewish American Council, we congratulate you on your election and wish you much success as President of the United States of America.

For over 20 years, the National Polish American-Jewish American Council has convened prominent leaders from the Polish American and Jewish American communities to address issues of common concern and improve Polish-Jewish relations in the United States and the world over.

In recent years, the Council has successfully debated important issues such as the preservation of the Auschwitz-Birkenau death camp, restitution and compensation for holocaust survivors and slaved and forced labor victims. The Council has also strongly condemned anti-Polish and anti-Semitic rhetoric in the U.S., Poland, and Israel.

We look forward to working closely with you and your administration to improve and promote Polish-Jewish dialogue.

Sincerely,

Professor Stanislaus A. Blejwas
