Party-Congress in Hannover was attended by Ammann and Feder. Ammann called Goebbels the Mephisto of the Party. Hitler only intended to take him away from G.Strasser, the left wing.

June 24, 1935 Goebbels' newspaper brought the followings:

"Red Plague over Berlin": Foreign planes of an unknown type escaped unrecognized; defenceless Germany; tomorrow it might be gas or incendiary bombs.

Dr. Goebbels sent aeroplanes over Austria particularly over Salzburg, which every day dropped leaflets against Dollfuss and propaganda in favor of Germany. This war in the ether was only stopped after the collapse of the bloody National-Socialist Putsch in Austria on the 25th of July 1934.

Bumberless rumors of reports of his affairs de coeur are in circulation.

Political History, Affiliations, etc.: From time to time he has been relegated to the background by Hitler on account of those rumours.

Goebbels and his wife and two children are regularly invited by Adolf Hitler at Obersalzberg and it is no secret that Hitler prefers the company of Goebbels' family to that of Goering's. Goebbels' connections to other Party leader are not too good:

his relations to Goering have always been strained;

he hates Rosenberg

despises Julius Treicher

feels that Himmler is watching him too closely;

he fears that Baldur von Schirach is too popular with the young people.

After M. Knickerbocker's information Goebbels has something like £ 770 000.-- in foreign investments.

In addition to his large house in Berlin, he has a huge villa in the country north of Berlin, set in the midst of 1850 acres of land. In the great hall of this villa there are no doors, but when a button is pressed, the wall-high windows sink down in the floor.

He said once: Hatred is my trade. It was Goebbels who imposed a Berlin rowdy and pimp (Horst Wessel) on all of Germany as a martyr and a national hero and made the Horst Wessel song of blood and hatred the National Anthem. He is called Hitler's Mephistopheles.
