QUEENFISH 021030 REPORTS SINKING BY MISTAKE AWA MARU.

I HAVE DIRECTED QUEENFISH AND SEA FOX TO SEARCH FOR SURVIVORS AND ANY DEBRIS OF VALUE. ALL SUBMARINES HAD BEEN NOTIFIED OF SCHEDULE OF THIS VLSSEL. COMDG OFFICER OF QUEENFISH COMDR LOUGHLIN IS EXCELLENT OFFICER WITH SPLENDID WAR RECORD. AWA MARU WAS AHEAD OF SCHEDULE. SHE WAS TRACKED AT 17 KNOTS WHEREAS SHE WAS SCHEDULED FOR 16 KNOTS AND HER EXPEDITED BRILLIANT ILLUMINATION WAS NOT VISIBLE AT 1200 YARDS. I REALIZE THAT THIS MAY BE TAKEN BY THE ENEMY AS A DELIBERATE BREACH OF FAITH BUT I CONSIDER THAT SINKING OF AWA MARU WAS RESULT OF AN HONEST AND UNDERSTANDABLE MISTAKE. I DEEPLY REGRET ITS TRAGIC CONSEQUENCES.

Foreign Office now informed that German Government consent to voyage of Red Cross ship down Rhine, and suggest ship should also carry supplies for prisoners from British First Airborne Division marooned by flooding in Caup (?) in Holland. Germans say this would be only means of getting relief to these prisoners.

Request you consider above when reply to our 6397. A very early answer would be appreciated.

Following from Chiefs of Staff for General Eisenhower.

As route from Gothenburg to Germany via Helsingborg-Helsingor Ferry proved unsatisfactory and in view possible closure Swedish West Coast ports we have been endeavoring to arrange for use of Sassnitz for off-loading of Red Cross supplies for prisoners of war. Negotiations are proceeding but have so far been unsuccessful as Germans state they are unable to provide either warehouse accommodation or trucks at Sassnitz.

2. In meantime I.R.C.C. arranged for a Swedish vessel to take Red Cross supplies from Gothenburg to Lubeck subject to assurance that she would "be respected as far as possible and that naval raiding forces would be informed". As this formula did not entail suspension of mining campaign and in view of grave shortage of Red Cross parcels for our prisoners voyage was authorized and we have given approval for further AD HOC voyages to Lubeck on same conditions. Such voyages will serve to tide I.R.C.C. over awkward gap which will exist until southern route via Marseilles fully open.

Answering your W 41107 concerning attack on German hospital ship Freiburg. The attack was made by Royal Air Force aircraft and a report has been submitted direct to Air Ministry. For your information following is paraphrase of report.

"Freiburg was attacked in harbour during an offence sweep by Mustangs of 239th Wing. This was observed in harbour and misidentified as a destroyer by pilots who saw no Red Cross markings. Two near misses with 1,000 pound bombs scored. Weather conditions at the time were four tenths low cloud at 2,000 feet, visibility good, wind ten knots from north."

Following from Chiefs of Staff.

Normal route for carrying Red Cross supplies for prisoners of war via Marseilles and Geneva has broken down owing to disorganization of French railways.

American Red Cross are anxious to divert 2 neutral ships "Travancore" and "Mangalore" which have already reached Barcelona to Gothenburg.

We have agreed to this proposal and arrangements are being made for granting of safe conduct for these ships. For the future we agree that other Red Cross ships carrying supplies for prisoners of war from United Nations should be granted similar facilities subject to any over-riding operational considerations from time to time.

Arrangements in para. 3 are subject to agreement that onward carriage of Red Cross supplies from Gothenburg will be by Helsingborg-Helsingor ferry.

BY SK, DATE MAR 7 1974

Following from Chiefs of Staff.

1. Four hospital carriers now in Mediterranean are "Dinard", "St. Julien", "Leinster" and "St. Andrew".

2. Original plan that all four should sail for U.K. in time to take part in OVERLORD has now been modified as follows: -

(A) You will retain "Leinster" and "St. Andrew".

(B) Please arrange for "Dinard" and "St. Julien" to sail from Mediterranean to U.K. leaving not later than 15th April. Actual date of leaving to be arranged between P.S.T.O. Mediterranean and D. of ST.

(C) We suggest you use instead "Perak" and a small hospital ship.

(D) "Perak" is not fitted for water ambulance and is not recognized under Geneva Convention owing to size, but no other carrier available and therefore no alternative.
