THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 30, 1975

JACK,

A Mrs. Donna Johnson of Chicago Heights, Illinois has contacted our Bicentennial Office with a request for a hand print of the President (hand tracing on a piece of paper). Mrs. Johnson, the mother of a blind child is doing a Bicentennial quilt, and would like to place the hand print in the middle of the quilt.

She has assured us that she desires no publicity in connection with this effort, and is only pursuing it as a patriotic contribution.
