Dear Secretary Card,

Your personal attention to the attached request would be greatly appreciated. Given the Bush Administration's earnest commitment to fight terrorism internationally, Rep. Bono and I think the State of the Union would be a good opportunity to put an American face on the victims who have been targeted overseas solely because they are American.

I hope that ^{you} will include young Arnel Sobero, who lost her father at the hands of the Abu Sayef terrorists, in the gallery of the House on January 29.

Thank you

Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

January 22, 2002

The Honorable George W. Bush
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. President:

We write to respectfully request your assistance with a matter that we believe may prove beneficial in our fight against terrorism.

As you know, last year one of our nation's first victims of terrorism by a group reported to be associated with the Al Queda organization was Guillermo Sobero, a southern California resident vacationing in the Philippines, who was kidnaped and killed by the Abu Sayef band of terrorists.

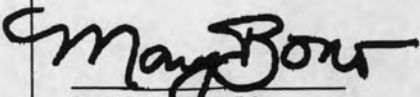

We have the honor of representing a number of Mr. Sobero's relatives, including his young children. His thirteen year old daughter, Aimee, has expressed to us an intense interest in coming to Washington, D.C. to hear first-hand your State of the Union address. Aimee is hopeful that as part of your address, you will recognize the loss suffered by the many victims of international terrorism this past year.

Mr. President, as you expand the focus of our struggle against terrorism, we believe it would be particularly helpful to call attention to the personal impact inflicted upon so many families. We can think of no better way to put a human face on these tragedies than to invite Aimee to be a guest at the State of the Union address and personally recognize her.

As our nation moves into a new phase of this struggle, it is our belief that Americans need to be reminded that acts of terror against our citizens can and do occur throughout the world, and we must confront those engaging in these acts and bring them to justice.

We deeply appreciate in advance your consideration of this request and stand ready to provide you and your staff with any information you may require.

Respectfully,

MARY BONO
Member of Congress

KEN CALVERT
Member of Congress

MEMORANDUM

Privileged and confidential
attorney work product

To: Karen Hughes, Karl Rove & Mary Matalin
From: Lanny J. Davis Lanny
Date: January 25, 2002
Subject: STATE OF THE UNION - SUGGESTED

Dear Karen, Karl & Mary:

I know it's probably too late for inclusion in The State of the Union - but here's a liberal Democrat's plea that we need to look at nuclear power as a serious option if we are ever going to reduce our dependence on foreign oil (please see attached). And I'm convinced there's never been a better time to build a consensus to do so. (For the record, my firm represents several nuclear power companies).

Best regards,

Lanny

Attachment

“A safe, secure energy supply is as important to the future of the United States as is success against terrorism.”

“A reliable energy supply will require employing diverse electric power generation technologies, including fossil (coal, oil, gas), nuclear, hydro, and other renewables.”

“Abundant energy, available at reasonable cost secure from radical price increases is one of the keys to a healthy, growing, U.S. economy.”

“Assurance of adequate energy supply for many years to come is essential to sustained growth of the U.S. economy.”

“Nuclear power, with its’ independence from foreign oil interests, lack of greenhouse gas emissions, comparatively low generation costs, and demonstrated record of safe and reliable operations, is one of the options available to secure our nation’s energy future. At the same time we must provide assurances of environmental safety, disposal, and transportation that today’s technologies make possible.
