SECRET book message to MacArthur, Nimitz, and Arnold for action from the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

1. The following command directive by the Joint Chiefs of Staff is issued for the guidance of Commanders in the Pacific Theater. Conflicting provisions of existing directives to CINCPAC and CINCSWPA are modified accordingly.
(An operational directive follows immediately in a separate message).

2. The over-all objective in the war against Japan, to be brought about at the earliest practicable date, is:

To force the unconditional surrender of Japan by:

a. Lowering Japanese ability and will to resist by establishing sea and air blockades, conducting intensive air bombardments, and destroying Japanese air and naval strength.

b. Invading and seizing objectives in the industrial heart of Japan.

3. A. The Supreme Commander, Southwest Pacific Area, is hereby also designated Commander in Chief, U.S. Army Forces, Pacific (CINCPAC) and, subject the provisions of Paragraphs 6 and 7 below, all United States Army resources in the Pacific Theater (less Southeast Pacific Area and resources under command of the Commanding General, Alaskan Department) are placed under his command. CINCPAC will be responsible for the provision of Army resources to meet the requirements for operations in the Pacific directed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

B. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs 6 and 7 below, all U.S. Naval resources in the Pacific Theater (less Southeast Pacific Area) are placed under the command of the Commander in Chief, U.S. Pacific Fleet and Pacific Ocean Areas in his capacity as Commander in Chief, U.S. Pacific Fleet. CINCPAC will be responsible for the provision of Naval resources to meet the requirements for operations in the Pacific directed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

C. The 20th Air Force for the present will continue operations to support the accomplishment of the overall objective under the direct control of the Joint Chiefs of Staff as provided in JCS 742/5.

4. The Joint Chiefs of Staff will exercise strategic jurisdiction over the Pacific Theater. They will issue operational directives to the Commanders in Chief assigning missions and fixing command responsibility for specific major operations and campaigns. other, in order to accomplish the over-all objective. The Joint Chiefs of Staff will normally charge CINCPAC with the responsibility for conducting land campaigns and CINCPAC with conducting sea campaigns. The Chief of Staff, U.S. Army, will act as executive agency for the Joint Chiefs of Staff in all matters pertaining to U.S. Army Forces. The Commander in Chief, U.S. Fleet, will act as executive agency for the Joint Chiefs of Staff in all matters pertaining to U.S. Naval Forces.

5. The transition from the present organization to that prescribed in this directive will be accomplished as expeditiously as possible with the objective of CINCPAC and CINCPAC each having under his own control (subject to agreements and arrangements made under provisions of paragraphs 6 and 7 below) all resources of his own service.

6. Until passed to other command by mutual agreement or by direction of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the localities under command of CINCSWPA and the Naval Forces allocated to him will remain under his command and similarly, the areas under command of CINCPA and the Army Forces allocated to him will remain under his command. Changes in command of forces or localities and changes made in existing joint logistical procedures will be effected by progressive rearrangements made by mutual agreement, or as may be directed by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

7. CINCPAC and CINCPAC are each authorized to establish joint forces or designate commanders to exercise unified command for the conduct of operations for which they have been made responsible, and may also do so by mutual agreement. They will also determine by mutual agreement when forces or localities revert or pass to the appropriate commander following operations.
