Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Roosevelt: *Recd
Nov*

I have been unable to write for several days else I would sooner have thanked you for the lovely roses sent me last Saturday.

The roses were most cheering, and the thought behind them touched me deeply. In these troubled times I did not know that such kindness and thoughtfulness could survive anywhere.

Again my thanks and may God bless you both.

Respectfully
Ann H. Shanker

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

November 28, 1933.

My dear Miss LeHand:

Later and still favorable.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson, otherwise known as Fannie Hurst and her husband, (She won't answer to the name of Danielson, so don't call her that) will spend the night of December fifth.

Mrs. Roosevelt has given up the contemplated dinner for December 18.

I think I wrote you that Mr. and Mrs. Morewitz will be here for January 4, and that Mr. and Mrs. Norman Case will be here the night of December 11. I think this is all we have heard from so far.

When I say the date is changed from December 18 for the small dinner, it is changed to Tuesday, January 2.

Very sincerely yours,

Eleanor Helms
