Dear Nan:-

The President is very much pleased with the pad which you sent and says to go ahead with the order for the office Christmas presents. I have checked with Mr. Sandersen and the number is 175.

We will all be in Hyde Park for the weekend and I am looking forward to seeing you.

Much love,

As ever yours,

Miss Nancy Cook,

Dear Missy,

Mr. Roosevelt asked us to work out some idea in the Forge for a Christmas gift for the President to give the office people as he did last year.

Last year he gave 200 paper knives. Will you let me know if he likes the idea - so we can start at once to get them done - It takes so long that we do not like to be rushed at the last minute.

I think they are very nice and I hope you all do also.

When will you all be up - I wish the old Congress would choke! Drop me a note if this sample is OK - Bless you -

Dear Missy:

I forgot to tell you in my other letter that we had sent the 175 desk pads with the President's head, which you ordered for him to give to the office people for Christmas.

We sent them in your name to the White House and I hope you get them OK.

Affectionately,

Nancy

The ark of the covenant of the Lord went, before them to search out a resting place for them.

MY times are in thy hand.—He shall choose our inheritance for us.

Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness; . . . make thy way straight before my face.

Commit thy way unto the LORD; trust
also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

—In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.—Thine ears shall hear a word behind thee, saying,
This is the way, walk ye in it, when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.—Like as a father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are dust.—Your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.—Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

Shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may be well with thee?

THERE remaineth . . . a rest to the people of God. — My people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places.
— There the wicked cease from troubling;
and there the weary be at rest. — They
. . . rest from their labours.

The forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever aft.
the order of Melchisedec.

COME unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest.
Take my yoke upon you, and learn
me; for I am meek and lowly in heart, and ye shall find rest unto your soul.
For my yoke is easy, and my burden light. — In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength.

THE LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

I don't know that the President will want to see this list of things which came as Christmas gifts to both the President and Mrs. R. However, since there are a few important people on it, I am sending it along.

Gentlemen:

Would you be good enough to send and charge to my account the order checked below. It is my understanding that they will be gift-wrapped - separately - at no extra charge.

212 Figured Key Chains - Scotty 238
@ $1.00 ea. 212.00

These are to be given as gifts by the President and there is a possibility that a few will be left over -- perhaps ten. It will be appreciated if we might be given the opportunity to return, for credit, those that are not needed. Thank you.

Dear Mr. Fitch:

The President is delighted with the desk pad sample you left with me the other day and would like very much to have forty-one of them, initialed as we agreed on at our meeting. The recipients initials are as follows:

J. N. G. ✓	R. T. McI. ✓	T. G. C. ✓
C. H. ✓	M. H. McI. ✓	B. V. C. ✓
M. M., Jr. ✓	L. C. ✓	H. S. C. ✓

F. C. W. ✓	L. M. ✓	J. A. F. ✓
F. K. ✓	F. A. D. ✓	C. E. ✓
H. L. I. ✓	H. D. S. ✓	H. A. W. ✓
C. R. W. ✓	W. D. S. ✓	H. L. H. ✓
J. H. J. ✓	R. F. ✓	E. R. ✓

S. T. E. ✓	V. A. ✓	F. M. ✓
E. M. W. ✓	B. O'C. ✓	E. J. F. ✓
D. J. C. ✓	S. I. R. ✓

Would you be good enough to add to the above order, one desk pad with just the initials "W. C. B." and nothing else? It would be appreciated if these initials could be a little larger than on the other desk pads.

It would also be appreciated if these desk pads could be gift-wrapped with the initials lightly pencilled on the outside paper.

Thank you very much for your trouble. You have been more than kind.

MEMO FOR MISS TULLY

Dear Grace:

Mrs. Roosevelt would like to have two dozen of the completed photos for personal use. She intends to send one to each of the children, and to some friends.

Mrs. Roosevelt also thinks there should be one for each member of the household staff. I told her we had counted them in. I also explained that as these are a gift, we can not be too lavish about promising them to people.

I have typed the memo which Mrs. Roosevelt gave you and am keeping it to ask her two questions. She does not say what Secy and Mrs. Wickard gave and I do not know who William is who gave playing cards.

I'll send the list back to you as soon as I have a chance to ask Mrs. R. I have indicated where Mrs. Roosevelt has already written as the gifts were addressed to both of them.

Dear Grace:

Mrs. Roosevelt does not remember what Sec and Mrs. Wickard gave so she is thanking for a lovely Christmas gift.

The man who gave the playing cards is William Ottman. The gift which Mr. Bullitt gave is the round silver cigarette box.

I think this ends the decippering.

Dear Mr. President:

You once said: "The only thing to fear is fear." I believe that, now as then.

If we in this land keep our chins up and our eyes open, if we give what we have to give, if we go all out for the things worth dying and living for -- all will be well with the past of our ancestors and the future of our youth.

So, with all the millions of others, I wish you, despite the state of the world, a merry Christmas and a bright New Year.

Whether the road be long or short, we will march with you, jubilantly, to the end of it -- and may God guide our feet.

Yours,

Walter Trumbull
