DECLASSIFIED

MEMORANDUM

From: The Director of Naval Intelligence.
To: Commander-in-Chief, United States Fleet.

Subject: Naval Intelligence Service Abroad - roster of.

Enclosures: (A) List of U. S. Naval Attachés, Assistant Naval Attachés, Naval Observers and Naval Liaison Officers now on duty abroad.
(B) List of U. S. Naval Attaché, Naval Observer and Naval Liaison Officer posts now in process of establishment.

1. Enclosures (A) and (B) are forwarded herewith for information. These enclosures are accurate as of May 1, 1942.

2. The staff of Admiral H. R. Stark, U. S. Navy, Special Naval Observers, and the Naval Observers on technical assignments in London, have been omitted from this list.

3. In addition to the posts enumerated in enclosure (A), there is a confidential post at Buenaventura, Colombia which operates as a "Consular Shipping Advisor" under the American Consulate at Cali, Colombia. This post is filled by Mr. H. H. Stanfield, assisted by Mr. J. H. Allen. All mail for this post must be enclosed in double envelopes, the inner addressed to the Consular Shipping Advisor, the outer to the American Consul, Cali, Colombia. Such correspondence must be forwarded in a State Department pouch via the nearest American Consular Agency, or, if the sender is within the United States, care of the Office of Naval Intelligence, Navy Department, Washington, D. C. Dispatches for the Consular Shipping Advisor should be addressed, AMCON, BUENAVENTURA.

4. Additional confidential "Consular Shipping Advisors" are in the process of establishment at Barranquilla and Cartagena, Colombia. For the present, however, shipping control duties at Barranquilla are being accomplished by Mr. W. C. Hughes, Jr., who is on temporary duty with the American Consul, detailed from the U. S. Naval Mission in Cartagena. Mail should be directed to the
