THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

His Excellency
Valdas Adamkus
President of the Republic of Lithuania
Vilnius

Dear Mr. President:

As you prepare to depart office, I offer my heartfelt appreciation for your hard work and determination in helping to gain Lithuania's invitations to join the NATO Alliance and the European Union. Lithuania's significant achievements in the past few years are very much a result of your leadership and vision.

I am grateful for the strong support you gave in the war on terrorism. You experienced first-hand the horrible attacks of September 11 and have shared with me the goal of routing out terrorists.

I also want to thank you again for hosting Laura and me for our memorable visit to Vilnius. It was a wonderful occasion. As I spoke in the Town Hall Square, you kindly informed me that the chant coming from the crowd was "thank you" in Lithuanian. As you prepare to depart your office, Laura joins me in saying "aciū" for all you have done to improve ties between the United States and Lithuania.

Sincerely,

George W. Bush
