Subject: FOR GAGGLE/BRIEFING TOMORROW

Scott -

Just got clearance from State and NSC folks to announce that Mrs. Bush, accompanied by Sec. Rice, will head a delegation to go to Liberia for the President's inauguration.

Proposed language follows for you to announce in tomorrow's gaggle or briefing. Full delegation is being worked out, but we can release on paper in the next couple of days. With the short notice and the need to contact the embassies, we wanted to go ahead and get this out there.

Mrs. Bush will also travel (without Sec. Rice or the delegation) to other African countries to highlight strong academic education programs and effective HIV/AIDS programs. Those countries are still being determined.

Thanks,
Susan

FOR THE GAGGLE OR BRIEFING RE: MRS. BUSH'S UPCOMING TRIP TO AFRICA:

- On January 16, Mrs. Bush will lead a delegation, including Secretary Rice and others to be announced at a later date, to the inauguration of the president elect of Liberia, Ellen Johnson Sirleaf (pronounced "SUR-laif) the first woman to be elected president on the continent of Africa.
- The U.S. has been extremely supportive of the recent democratic elections in Liberia. This delegation reflects the President's continued commitment to democracy and supporting countries making the difficult transition from war to peace and from tyranny to liberty. The United States looks forward to working with the new President and the people of Liberia to rebuild their institutions, establish stability and prosperity, and create an environment for reconciliation.
