Sullivan, Viner, Helvering, etc. 3/1/40

244: 1

- a) Sullivan states history as a background
for refreshing memories
- b) Change in attitude of aviation industry
during something less than 2 months noted:
president of Glenn-Martin Co. states in a speech that of all facilities aviation industry will suffer least from any kind of war-time recession because demands for commercial planes in this country and of U.S. Army and Navy will be adequate to keep additional facilities employed .17

War Conditions

2 Closing Agreements:

244

- 1) Therefore, if closing agreements had been executed last Nov. and entire cost of expansion written off during 1940 as the industry itself requested, result would have been disadvantageous to the industry itself
- c) First 2 closing agreements under Vinson-Trammell Act reviewed (Colt Patent Firearms Co. and Consolidated Aircraft Co.); Hercules Powder Co. also reviewed 19,24,53
- d) Viner's definition of "obsolescence" given 35
- e) Magill asked by HMJr to re-state problem involved 38

War Conditions

3 Closing Agreements:

- f) HMJr states "from standpoint of natl. defense, best thing that has happened in this country is when the French came in and provided the money with which to build up these factories" 244: 44
- g) McGill states 2 great things accomplished by 1938 Rev. Act were (1) to provide for future closing agreements and (2) to provide for litigation under statute of limitations 47
- h) Hercules-British loan and contract discussed 58
- i) Commissioner's ruling vs. closing agreement discussed 76
- j) HMJr advocates publicity for closing agreements exactly as with Commissioner's rulings 81
